are not confined only to Bengal as there are quite a number of tols affiliated to it in other provinces and in some Indian States. The most important of the tols is the Oriental Department of the Sanskrit College which is maintained by Government and teaches Veda, Vedanta, Smriti, Nyaya and Vyakaran. The students in the Tol Department pay no fees. In 1936-37, there were 144 students against 105 students in 1931-32.

The Association conducts three examinations, the Adya or the First Examination, the Madhya or the Second Examination and the Upadhi or the Title Examination. In 1936-37, 13,273 candidates appeared at the examinations conducted by the Association of whom 4,062 passed the Adya, 1,643 passed the Madhya and 764 passed the Title Examinations.

The affairs of the Sanskrit Association were engaging the attention of the department as the constitution of the Association did not receive universal support from the pandits. In 1936-37, a committee of enquiry was appointed to examine the possibilities of conducting the Association on a grant-in-aid basis and to recommend measures for the better working of the Association. The final report of the Committee was not submitted before the end of the quinquennium.

There are some local associations which are working independently of the Bengal Sanskrit Association for the advancement of Sanskritic studies; the most important of these is the East Bengal Saraswat Samaj which since its establishment in 1878 has been doing excellent work for the promotion of Sanskritic studies in Eastern Bengal. The annual Convocation of the Samaj is one of the most important functions at Dacca and is usually presided over by His Excellency the Governor of Bengal who gives certificates and awards to the pandits.

Scholarships and stipends.—A number of stipends are awarded annually to pandits, who maintain tols, on the success of their pupils at the Sanskrit Examinations. But no such stipends are available for maulvis who maintain madrasahs.

For pandits of tols the following stipends are available:—

Twenty-four stipends of a monthly value of Rs. 8 each and 21 stipends of a monthly value of Rs. 6 each on the result of the Adya Examination; 15 stipends of Rs. 12 each a month and 14 of Rs. 10 each a month on the result of the Madhya Examination. Ten prizes are also awarded to the pandits whose pupils pass the Title Examination, six of these are of Rs. 50 each, two of Rs. 100 each and two of Rs. 200 each.

For the successful candidates the following stipends and prizes are awarded:—

Fifty-seven stipends of Rs. 2 each a month, tenable for two years, on the result of the Adya Examination, 17 stipends of Rs. 3 each a month and 15 stipends of Rs. 4 each a month, also tenable for 2 years, on the result of the Madhya Examination. In addition there are 4 stipends of Rs. 3 each a month, tenable for three years, for Nyaya students who pass the Madhya Examination. Fifteen prizes are awarded in order of merit on the result of the Title Examination: two are of Rs. 100 each, two are of Rs. 50 each, six are of Rs. 25 each and five of Rs. 20 each. In addition to these Government prizes, pupils are also eligible for 25 private awards.

On the result of the Central Madrasah Examinations the following stipends and scholarships are awarded:—

On the result of the Fazil Examination four scholarships of Rs. 15 each per month tenable for 2 years in the Hadis and Tafsir Classes and also two scholarships of Rs. 10 each per month tenable for 2 years in the Fiqh and Usual Title Classes of Calcutta Madrasah.

Two research scholarships of Rs. 25 each per month tenable for one year and two research scholarships of Rs. 50 each per month tenable for one year are also awarded to the passed students of Calcutta Madrasah.

Teachers of tols are also eligible for 6 primary awards.

Text-book Committee.—Certain important changes were introduced during the period under review in the procedure for the examination of the books submitted for approval to the Provincial Text-book Committee. Formerly it had been the practice to call for text-books on all subjects for primary and secondary schools in a single year; but experience showed that members found it difficult to examine thoroughly all books for the schools in one year. It was therefore decided to call for books for examination in a four-year cycle by rotation. It was also decided to pay the reviewers who examine the text-books and fees were to be charged from publishers who submit books for examination. From 1934, fees on a sliding scale of Rs. 15, Rs. 12, Rs. 8 and Rs. 6 were charged for books for different classes submitted for examination and reviewers were paid at the rates of Rs. 4, Rs. 3 and Rs. 2 for each book according to the grade of the book.

During the period under review, 7,447 books were submitted for examination of which 3,248 were approved for use in primary and secondary schools. A sum of Rs. 41,115 was realized as fees, of which Rs. 27,378 was paid to reviewers.

During the period, the syllabuses of studies in Science, Hygiene, Bengali Grammar and Physical Education were revised; and the curricula for maktabs and primary schools were unified and a revised syllabus drawn up for these schools, but this did not receive the final approval of Government before the end of the quinquennium.

The rules for the working of the Text-book Committee were revised during the quinquennium and it was decided to appoint a Secretary and Reader for the Committee. The rules were approved by Government but as budgetary provision had not been made, it was not possible to give effect to the new rules in the period under review. The present position is unsatisfactory. The work of the Secretary is too heavy for the Assistant Director for Muhammadan Education who has to do this heavy work in addition to his normal duties.

A Sub-Committee of the Text-book Committee met annually to award the Babu Brajamohan Dutt Essay Prize for Indian women. In 1934-35, the award could not be made as the Committee were of opinion that the essays submitted did not reach a sufficiently high standard and an additional prize of the same value was awarded for the essay in 1935-36.

Scientific and literary societies; public libraries.—Altogether 353 societies were returned in 1936-37 against 203 in 1931-32. The majority of these had also libraries attached to them. In the city of Calcutta alone, there were 40 such societies. The most important and influential society in Bengal is the Royal Asiatic Society of Bengal which was founded in 1784 by Sir William Jones. It enjoys a well-deserved reputation in learned circles all over the world for the valuable work that is being done by the society. It has an excellent library well stocked with rare manuscripts and books and every facility for work is given to all serious students in the field of oriental learning and culture.

There are some other societies also which deserve mention. The Bangiya Sahitya Parishad, ever since its foundation in 1894, has continued to do important work for the promotion of literary, historical and scientific work through the medium of Bengali. The society has a very good library stocked with all the most important works published in Bengali, it has also a number of very rare manuscripts. It has published many important early works in Bengali and has also undertaken the publication of definitive editions of old Bengalee authors. It also publishes a quarterly journal which is regarded as indispensable by all serious students of Bengali language and literature. The Parishad has branches in most of the important towns in Bengal. The Parishads in Dacca, Faridpur, Rangpur and Chittagong are the most important of these branches where good work is being done. Government subsidizes the Parishad by purchasing a large number of the journal and some of the more important publications.

The Indian Association for the Cultivation of Science was established in 1876 by Dr. Sarkar for the advancement of original research in scientific subjects. Ever since its establishment it has been doing good work and many well-known Indian scientists have been intimately connected with its work.

The Varendra Research Society at Rajshahi has a small but well-equipped museum in which many important relics and manuscripts, especially those dealing with North Bengal are housed. The society is doing very valuable work in a narrow field and its activities have contributed to some important addition to knowledge on the early history of Bengal. The Dacca Museum is also another important institution which has not only a fine small museum, but has been steadily working for many years for extending knowledge on early Bengali iconography. The Museum Committee was reorganized during the quinquennium and the museum is now working in close touch with the University of Dacca.

Of the institutions which specially devote themselves to catering for the needs of the growing generation, the most important are the Calcutta University Institute, founded in 1891, the Moslem Institute which is specially connected with the Calcutta Madrasah and the Young Men's Christian Association founded in 1893 and the Young Women's Christian Association.

There are several organizations specially devoted to women's education. Of these special mention may be made of National Indian Association for Women, Bengal Women's Education League and Women's Educational Conference. The Nari Siksha Samity is also doing valuable work and the work of Saroj Nalini Dutt Memorial Association has already been referred to in an earlier chapter. The Hitakari Sabha at Uttarpara conducts examination and awards scholarships to girls on the results of its examination. The Tripura Hitasadhini Sabha also furthers the cause of women's education by the award of stipends and scholarships.

Semi-political organizations like the District Anjumans also do a great deal for the educational advancement of the Muslim community and nearly all the Anjumans give stipends and other financial assistance to poor Muslims for helping them in their higher studies.

There are some societies which try to help Sanskritic studies. The most important of these is the East Bengal Saraswat Samaj which has already been referred to earlier in the chapter. Chittagong Bidyabinod Sabha and the Patiya Jnanadayini Sabha also do a great deal for the promotion of Sanskritic studies in Chittagong. The Sanskrit Sahitya Parishad in Calcutta has a library of some old manuscripts and old books and try to encourage research work in Sanskrit. The work of the Mahabodhi Society in the region of Buddhistic learning has been yielding good results in advancing knowledge in Pali and in early Buddhist philosophy and doctrines.

The Bengal Library Association which was founded some years ago showed a vigorous life especially during the later part of the quinquennium. The untiring efforts of the founder Munindra Deb Rai Mahasaya to create more interest in the library movement cannot be too highly praised. He has now an active and enthusiastic lieutenant in the new Librarian of the University of Calcutta, Dr. Nihar Ranjan Roy. The Association arranged for training courses in librarianship in the last year of the quinquennium. Khan Bahadur Asadullah, the Librarian of the Imperial Library, had also worked very hard for spreading greater knowledge of library management and technique and regular courses in librarianship were held throughout the quinquennium at the Imperial Library. There are numerous public libraries all over the province; but some of these are not very well conducted or managed. The most important and useful of these are probably the Northbrook Hall Library at Dacca, Madaripur Public Library, Malda Public Library (which has also a small but useful museum attached to it), Midnapore Public Library, Burdwan Raj Public Library, the Duke Library at Howrah, Bir Chandra Public Library at Comilla, and the Buckland Ghat Public Library at Chittagong. The Indian Railway Institutes at Asansol and at Chittagong also have good libraries attached to them and hold literary meetings and arrange dramatic performances.

Conferences and committees.—The most important of the conferences that was held during the quinquennium was the Bengal Education Week and Exhibition which had its session from 31st January to 8th of February, 1936. It was organized at the instance of the Education Minister, Khan Bahadur M. Azizul Haque, who worked very hard to make the function successful. Prominent non-officials and congressmen worked in closest co-operation with departmental officers; almost all the schools in the province sent delegates to the Week and altogether over 1,800 delegates attended the function. The Week was formally opened by His Excellency the Governor of Bengal and the closing address was given by the Poet Rabindra Nath Tagore and presided over by the Metropolitan of India. Prominent educationists from outside the province also generously responded to the invitation of the Committee and gave addresses and special lectures; Sir George Anderson, the then Educational Commissioner with the Government of India came down to speak on recent educational progress in India and amongst others Sir Sikandar Hyat Khan and the late Sir Ross Masood also came to address the delegates. Most of the provincial departments of Public Instruction co-operated with the Committee by sending exhibits to the exhibition and the British Board of Education and the Governments of Italy and Germany also sent exhibits for the Week. The Week was pronounced a great success and it also encouraged the holding of various regional education weeks in various parts of the province.

The Bengal Women's Education League held annual sessions all through the quinquennium when many important resolutions were adopted dealing with various aspects of the education of women in Bengal. The All-India Women's Conference was also held in Calcutta in December 1936.

The All-Bengal Teachers' Association held their annual sessions regularly and passed various resolutions dealing with the conditions of service of secondary school teachers and of general questions connected with secondary and primary education. The All-Bengal College and University Teachers' Association also held several sessions during the period under review and dealt with various questions relating to secondary and University education. At meetings of both the Associations resolutions were adopted for the deprovincialisation of educational institutions under the direct management of Government.

Of the conferences, the most important was the one which was held on 23rd, 24th and 25th November 1933 at Government House, Calcutta, to discuss the reorganization and control of secondary and University education. The conference was attended by representatives of the Governments of Assam and Bengal and of the Universities of Calcutta and Dacca, and by some prominent non-official educationists. The All-Bengal Teachers' Association also sent one delegate to the conference. Government undertook to make a survey of secondary schools in Bengal in order to find out the actual needs of the secondary schools in Bengal and to propose measures to meet these needs. But this work could not be undertaken on a comprehensive scale during the period under review.

A conference of the Principals of Government Colleges was held to discuss various questions relating to higher education and on the basis of their recommendation a scheme for the co-ordination of work in Government Colleges was prepared and submitted to Government. Conferences of superior inspecting officers and others were also held both at Calcutta and in divisional headquarters to discuss various important questions regarding primary education and the training of teachers for primary and middle schools, etc.

The Report of the Moslem Education Committee which was constituted in 1931 to advise Government on the policy to be adopted for advancing the cause of Muslim education was submitted in 1935 and Government appointed a special officer to examine critically the various recommendations made by the Committee.

Government also appointed a small departmental Committee in 1935-36 for investigating the possibilities of increasing the facilities of education at Presidency College. Towards the end of the year 1936-37, Government appointed a Committee consisting of non-officials with only one departmental representative on the Committee to examine the affairs of the Sanskrit Association and to recommend measures to ensure smoother working; the Committee were also requested to investigate the possibilities of making the Association a completely independent and self-supporting institution with a grant-in-aid from Government.

Educational research.—Though no outstanding results were obtained during the period under review, a great deal of quiet but valuable work was done at both the training colleges and their tradition of conducting researches was maintained, though the work was handicapped because ruthless reduction was made in the grants to these colleges as a measure of economy. At Dacca investigations were conducted on the Bengali vocabulary of high school students and the corelation between the various school subjects and between scholarship and athletic ability of school children. Certain experiments were tried with will-temperament tests. Teaching of Bengali by the new method of Mr. Bhattacharyya and of English by the West method were also carried on and results noted for a final report. At David Hare Training College Professor S. C. Chakravarti completed an important piece of investigation by administering standardized reasoning tests in Arithmetic to over 800 boys. Mr. K. D. Ghose also experimented with reading tests and experiments were also conducted in the teaching of English pronunciation to Bengalee boys. It is proposed as soon as funds are available to undertake statistical investigations in education in co-operation with the Indian Statistical Institute. The work of standardizing intelligence tests for the higher forms of high schools was still being continued at the college.

DISTRICT REPORTS ON WEATHER AND CROPS.

For the week ending on the 12th April 1939.

Summary.—During the week light rainfall was almost general throughout the presidency. Agricultural operations are being delayed for want of sufficient rain, particularly in North Bengal. Recent rain has been beneficial to the standing crops to some extent but more rain is badly needed. Condition of standing crops are on the whole fair. In Murshidabad 24,366 labourers attended test relief centres on Saturday, the 8th April 1939. In Bakarganj 112 persons received gratuitous relief. Figures for test relief works are not available. Figures for relief works in Pabna and Faridpur are not available. The average price of common rice for the province has risen by about 0·2 per cent. as compared with that of the previous week.

Calcutta, the 21st April 1939.

The joint waterworks of the Baranagar and Kamarhati Municipalities in the district of the 24-Parganas are nearing completion and will very shortly be in working order. Owing, however, to party factions among the Commissioners of the Baranagar Municipality, it has not been possible for the Joint Water-supply Committee constituted under section 87 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932, to function properly and both the municipalities concerned have by resolution requested the local Government to take over the management and control of the waterworks.

NOTIFICATIONS.

No. 14-I.—17th April 1939.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sections 6 and 11 of the Canals Act, 1864 (Bengal Act V of 1864), and in supersession of notification No. 17-I., dated the 16th September 1930, the Governor is pleased to make the following rules and fix the following rates of tolls for the line of navigation known as the Roypasa-Nathullabad-Jail Khal in the district of Bakarganj and as defined in notifications No. 9-I., dated 22nd July 1930, and No. 3-I., dated the 19th February 1939.

This will take effect from the 13th May 1939.

Rules and Rates of Tolls.

1. Every vessel on entering the channel and before passing the gate at either end or even when entering the channel from a side khal between the gates shall be liable to measurement for the purpose of ascertaining the tolls payable; in case of any reasonable doubt arising, a vessel may be measured again by any person appointed by the district board of Bakarganj on this behalf.

2. Vessels for the purpose of the determination of maundage shall be divided into two classes as below:—

Class I—To include all vessels of the types of country boats, including saltees and hapors (fish cages), house boats, Kosh boats, green boats and other similar types of boats.

Class II—To include steam boats, motor boats, flats and barges and other square built vessels.

3. The maundage of every vessel, whether laden or empty, shall, for the purpose of the Canals Act, 1864, and of these rules, be determined by the following measurements:—

Class I.

A. The product of one quarter of the length of the vessel from stem to stern, measured along the water-line, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the depth from the water-line to the interior bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as equal to the number of maunds upon which tolls shall be levied.

B. The measurement of the length is to be made in feet, rejecting inches; the measurement of breadth and depth is to be made in feet and quarters of a foot, rejecting any remainder of less than a quarter of a foot.

C. The maundage on which the amount of toll is calculated shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 12½ maunds, any remainder of less than 12½ maunds being rejected. In the case of vessels exceeding 500 maunds by measurement, the maundage shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 50 maunds, rejecting any remainder of less than 50 maunds.

D. Saltees.—The product of one quarter of the inside length of the vessel, measured along the centre line from stem to stern, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the greatest depth measured from the top to the interior bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as equal to the number of maunds upon which tolls shall be levied.

Class II.

For vessels of class II the number of maunds obtained by the system of measurement prescribed for vessels of class I shall be increased by one-half. For vessels of this class above 5,000 maunds measurement, the maundage shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 500 maunds, rejecting any remainder of less than 500 maunds. In the case of steamers and motor boats the maundage determined as above shall be reduced by one-third as an allowance of engine space.

For vessels of class II which are furnished with reliable way bills, the gross maundage of cargo shown by the way bills or in the case of steamers, the maundage obtained from multiplying the registered tonnage of the steamer by 27, may, at the option of the employer of the vessel or the steamer (as the case may be) be taken as the maundage on which tolls will be charged.

4. After the measurement the person in charge of the vessel shall be provided with a slip showing the maundage to be charged, which shall be presented at the toll office where he will be provided with a ticket, after payment of toll, which will permit the vessel to pass the gate or proceed through the channel.

5. Every ticket shall have entered on it the name of the serang, manjee or other person in charge of the vessel, the date of entry, the maundage, the cargo, the amount of toll charged and the number of days for which the ticket remains current.

6. All tolls are payable on demand and shall be paid at the toll office before a vessel is permitted to proceed.

7. The ticket shall be kept on board the vessel and in possession of the person in charge of the vessel and shall be produced for inspection when demanded by the person authorised to collect tolls, or by any officer to whom such person is subordinate. If on demand the ticket is not produced, such person or officer shall assess the tollage as provided in rules 3 and 12 and shall require payment of toll, and unless and until the toll is paid, or the original ticket or a duplicate is produced as evidence that toll has already been paid, the vessel shall be liable to seizure and detention under the provisions of section 9 of the Act.

8. Duplicates of lost tickets, of which the numbers and dates can be satisfactorily established, will be granted by the collector of tolls on payment of a fee equal to one-quarter of the total tollage, subject to a minimum fee of one anna per ticket.

9. All vessels, whether the property of Crown, of district board, or other local bodies or of private persons, are liable for toll except those specially exempted under these rules or by a resolution passed by the district board of Bakarganj from time to time.

10. The canal may be closed once a year for effecting the necessary repairs to it on seven days' notice of the intention so to close it being given; but in the event of any sudden emergency the canal may be closed at any time without prior notice, and no claim in such case by owners of vessels or others for compensation on account of detention shall be entertained.

11. No rafts exceeding 50 feet in length and 5 feet in breadth shall be permitted to enter the canals.

12. The rate of toll shall be as follows:—

(1) On all vessels empty or laden per hundred maunds—Twelve annas.

(2) On all vessels empty or laden, for 12½ maunds or less—One anna six pies.

(3) On rafts of bamboos, grass, timber or other similar articles, not exceeding 50 feet in length and 5 feet in breadth—Six annas each raft.

Tolls shall be levied at Barisal or at Amanotganj near Barisal Chowk Bazar, at Kawnia near old cremation ground (at the west end of Jail Khal), at Defulia near Baniakati bridge and at North Karapur (Bagadhi) at the west end.

13. For boats frequently using the canal, such as boats carrying passengers, grass or perishable articles monthly tickets will be issued at 10 times the ordinary toll.

14. Every vessel which has paid toll shall be allowed to remain in the canal for three days inclusive of the days of entry into and leaving the canal. A vessel remaining in any part of the canal longer than three days shall be charged demurrage equal to one half of the toll for each day in excess of three days. No vessel shall be permitted to remain in the canal for more than one month, i.e., provided that this rule shall not apply to vessels holding monthly tickets under rule 13, which may remain in the canal for more than three days without payment of demurrage but not for more than one month at a time.

15. No vessel carrying exclusively police officers or servants, soldiers and officers of the Army in India, post mail runners, officers of the Irrigation Department on duty, officers and servants of the toll office for the canal referred to in these rules while on duty, shall be liable for toll in the canal.

16. Any matter relating to the mode of collection of tolls and other relevant points, not provided for in these rules, shall be decided by the district board of Bakarganj at a meeting and such decision shall be subject to the approval of the Provincial Government.

No. 13-I.—6th April 1939.—It is hereby notified for general information that in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 6 and 11 of the Canals Act, 1864 (Bengal Act V of 1864), the Governor intends to make the following rules and fix the following rates of tolls for the line of navigation known as the Surjamani khal in the district of Bakarganj and as defined in the notification No. 10-I., dated the 6th April 1939.

2. Any objection or suggestion with respect thereto should reach the undersigned before the 29th May 1939:—

Rules and rates of tolls.

1. Every vessel on entering the channel and before passing the gate at either end or even when entering the channel from a side khal between the gates shall be liable to measurement for the purpose of ascertaining the tolls payable; in case of any reasonable doubt arising, a vessel may be measured again by any person appointed by the district board of Bakarganj on this behalf.

2. Vessels for the purpose of determination of maundage shall be divided into two classes as below:—

Class I—To include all vessels of the types of country boats, including saltees and hapors (fish cages), house boats, kosh boats, green boats, and other similar types of boats.

Class II—To include steam boats, motor boats, flats, and barges and other square-built vessels.

3. The maundage of every vessel, whether laden or empty, shall, for the purpose of the Canals Act and of these rules, be determined by the following measurements:—

Class I.

A. The product of one quarter of the length of the vessel from stem to stern, measured along the water line, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the depth from the water line to the interior bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as equal to the number of maunds upon which tolls shall be levied.

B. The measurement of the length is to be made in feet, rejecting inches; the measurement of breadth and depth is to be made in feet and quarters of a foot, rejecting any remainder of less than a quarter of a foot.

C. The maundage on which the amount of toll is calculated shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 12½ maunds, any remainder of less than 12½ maunds being rejected. In the case of vessels exceeding 500 maunds by measurement, the maundage shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 50 maunds, rejecting any remainder of less than 50 maunds.

D. Saltees.—The product of one quarter of the inside length of the vessel, measured along the centre line from stem to stern, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the greatest depth measured from the top to the interior bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as equal to the number of maunds upon which tolls shall be levied.

Class II.

For vessels of class II the number of maunds obtained by the system of measurement prescribed for vessels of class I shall be increased by one-half. For vessels of this class above 5,000 maunds measurement, the maundage shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 500 maunds, rejecting any remainder of less than 500 maunds. In the case of steamers and motor boats the maundage determined as above shall be reduced by one-third as an allowance of engine space.

For vessels of class II which are furnished with reliable way bills the gross maundage of cargo shown by the way bills, or in the case of steamers the maundage obtained from multiplying the registered tonnage of the steamer by 27, may, at the option of the employer of the vessel or the steamer (as the case may be), be taken as the maundage on which tolls will be charged.

4. After the measurement the person in charge of the vessel shall be provided with a slip showing the maundage to be charged, which shall be presented at the toll office where he will be provided with a ticket, after payment of toll, which will permit the vessel to pass the gate or proceed through the channel.

5. Every ticket shall have entered on it the name of the serang, manjhee or other person in charge of the vessel, the date of entry, the maundage, the cargo, the amount of toll charged and the number of days for which the ticket remains current.

6. All tolls are payable on demand and shall be paid at the toll office before a vessel is permitted to proceed.

7. The ticket shall be kept on board the vessel and in possession of the person in charge of the vessel and shall be produced for inspection when demanded by the person authorised to collect tolls, or by any officer to whom such person is subordinate. If on demand the ticket is not produced, such person or officer shall assess the tollage as provided in rules 3 and 12 and shall require payment of toll, and unless and until the toll is paid, or the original ticket or a duplicate is produced as evidence that toll has already been paid, the vessel shall be liable to seizure and detention under the provisions of section 9 of the Act.

8. Duplicates of lost tickets, of which the numbers and dates can be satisfactorily established, will be granted by the collector of tolls on payment of a fee equal to one quarter of the total tollage, subject to a minimum fee of one anna per ticket.

9. All vessels, whether the property of the Crown, of the district board or other local bodies, or of private persons, are liable for toll except those specially exempted under these rules or by a resolution passed by the district board of Bakarganj from time to time.

10. The canal may be closed once a year for effecting the necessary repairs to it on seven days' notice of the intention so to close it being given; but in the event of any sudden emergency the canal may be closed at any time without prior notice, and no claim in such case by owners of vessels or others for compensation on account of detention shall be entertained.

11. No rafts exceeding 50 feet in length or 5 feet in breadth shall be permitted to enter the canal.

12. The rates of toll shall be as follows:—

(1) On all vessels, empty or laden, per hundred maunds—Eight annas.

(2) On all vessels, empty or laden, for 12½ maunds or less—One anna.

(3) On rafts of bamboos, grass, timber or other similar articles not exceeding 50 feet in length and 5 feet in breadth—Four annas each raft.

Tolls shall be levied at Dwipasa and Bauphal.

13. For boats frequently using the canal, such as boats carrying passengers, grass or perishable articles monthly tickets will be issued at ten times the ordinary toll.

14. Every vessel which has paid toll shall be allowed to remain in the canal for three days inclusive of the days of entry into and leaving the canal. A vessel remaining in any part of the canal longer than three days shall be charged demurrage equal to one-half of the toll for each day in excess of three days. No vessel shall be permitted to remain in the canal for more than one month, i.e., provided that this rule shall not apply to vessels holding monthly tickets under rule 13 above, which may remain in the canal for more than three days without payment of demurrage but not for more than one month at a time.

15. No vessel carrying exclusively police officers or servants, soldiers or officers of the Army in India, post mail runners, officers of the Department of Communications and Works (Irrigation) on duty, or officers or servants of the toll office for the canal referred to in these rules while on duty, shall be liable for toll in the canal.

16. Any matter relating to the mode of collection of tolls and other relevant points, not provided for in these rules, shall be decided by the district board of Bakarganj at a meeting and such decision shall be subject to the approval of the Provincial Government.

No. 931Edn.—17th April 1939.—The following draft of a notification, which the Governor proposes to issue in exercise of the power conferred by clause (i) of sub-section (2) of section 66 of the Bengal (Rural) Primary Education Act, 1930 (Bengal Act VII of 1930), is published for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby.

Draft notification.

In exercise of the power conferred by clause (i) of sub-section (2) of section 66 of the Bengal (Rural) Primary Education Act, 1930 (Bengal Act VII of 1930), the Governor is pleased to make the following rules regarding the manner of election of a member of a District School Board under clause (i) of section 6:—

Rules.

1. In these rules—

(a) "Magistrate" means the Magistrate of the district or any Magistrate subordinate to the Magistrate of the district to whom he may delegate any of his powers under these rules;
(b) "the Act" means the Bengal (Rural) Primary Education Act, 1930;
(c) "election" means an election held under clause (i) of section 6 of the Act; and (d) "thana" means a police-station.

2. All disputes arising under these rules other than objections under rule 19 shall be decided by the Magistrate and his decision shall be final.

3. An election under these rules shall be held by such date as may be fixed in this behalf by the Provincial Government under section 7 of the Act.

4. All existing permanent teachers, male or female, of primary schools either managed or recognised by the Board shall be entitled to have their names included in the register of voters for an election provided they have completed continuous service of at least three years. A register of such voters in the district, thana by thana, shall be prepared by the Magistrate at least five months before the date fixed under section 7 of the Act for the election.

5. The Magistrate shall, not less than sixteen weeks before the date fixed under section 7 of the Act for the election, select one or more polling centres in each thana within the area of the district and shall cause to be published the register of voters entitled to vote at each such polling centre. The register shall be published at such places within the thana as appear suitable to the Magistrate. Any person whose name does not appear in the register and who claims the right of voting, or any person who considers that any name in the register ought to be removed, may, within three weeks of the publication of the register, apply in writing to the Magistrate stating the grounds of his application for the insertion of his or her name in or the removal of such name from the register, as the case may be, and the Magistrate shall decide such application on a date to be previously intimated to the persons concerned and his decision shall be final and he shall cause the register to be amended in accordance therewith. The register of voters as so amended shall be deemed to be the final register of voters for the election, and no person whose name is not for the time being included in such register shall be entitled to vote at the election. The final register of voters shall be published at least ten weeks before the date fixed under section 7 of the Act for the election. No person shall vote at any polling station other than the one in the register of which his or her name is included. A person shall be entitled to vote only at one polling centre and shall not have more than one vote at such centre.

6. Any person whose name is included in the final register of voters shall be qualified to stand as a candidate for the election.

7. The Magistrate shall, as soon as the final register of voters is published, fix a date for the election within the date fixed under section 7 of the Act by the Provincial Government and issue notices calling for nomination of candidates. Such notices shall be published at the office of every Union Board, Union Committee or President Panchayet and at every primary school, thana and polling centre within the district. Within four weeks from the date of publication of the notices every person who is a candidate for election shall send his or her name to the Magistrate together with the necessary particulars filled up in the nomination form given in Appendix A to these rules. His nomination shall be supported by three voters whose names appear on the dates on which they sign the form in the register of voters prepared for the district. No names of candidates shall be received after the expiration of such period and no nomination shall be held to be valid unless the nomination form is properly filled in.

8. Every candidate shall submit with his nomination form a chalan showing that he has deposited a sum of Rs. 10 in a treasury in favour of the Board. No nomination form, which is not accompanied by such a chalan, shall be taken into consideration by the Magistrate.

9. The Magistrate, after scrutiny of the nomination, shall announce the names of the eligible candidates and a list of such candidates shall be published at least four weeks before the date fixed for the election, at such places in the district as the Magistrate considers suitable. No candidate whose name does not appear in such list shall be considered eligible for election.

10. A candidate who is not elected and has failed to receive ten per cent. of the total number of votes recorded in the district, shall forfeit the deposit made by him under rule 8.

11. If the number of the candidates mentioned in the list published under rule 9 is not greater than one, the Magistrate shall declare the candidate to be duly elected.

12. If the number of such candidates is greater than one, election shall be held on the date fixed under rule 7.

13. The election in all the thanas of the district shall be held simultaneously.

14. The date on which, the place at which and the hours between which the polling in each centre shall take place shall be duly notified at such places as may appear suitable to the Magistrate at least one month before the date of polling.

15. At the end of the second hour mentioned in the notice referred to in rule 14, no voter shall be admitted within the building or enclosure within which the election proceedings are being held, but the votes of all duly registered voters, who are already within the building or enclosure, shall be recorded.

16. All persons wishing to vote shall be present at the election. No vote by proxy or in writing shall be received by the Presiding Officer.

17. A Presiding Officer and an Assistant for the election at each polling centre shall be selected by the District Magistrate. The Assistant shall act as the Presiding Officer in case of the unavoidable absence of the Presiding Officer from the polling centre.

18. The proceedings shall commence by the Presiding Officer explaining the nature and object of the meeting to the assembled voters. He shall then read out the list of candidates against the vacancy.

19. If any person misconducts himself at the polling centre or canvasses within the building or enclosure within which the election proceedings are being held, or fails to obey the lawful orders of the Presiding Officer, he may immediately, by order of the Presiding Officer, be removed from the polling centre or such building or enclosure; and the person so removed shall not, unless with the permission of the Presiding Officer, be allowed again to enter the polling centre, building or enclosure during the day:

Provided that this power shall not be exercised so as to prevent any voter who is otherwise entitled to vote at any polling centre from having an opportunity of voting at such centre.

20. The Presiding Officer shall then proceed to take a poll for each candidate. He shall record the votes himself.

21. All objections to the right of a person to vote shall be summarily decided by the Presiding Officer after reference to the register. No objection to a voter shall be entertained except on the ground that he is not the person under whose name as entered in the register of voters he claims to vote.

22. The Presiding Officer shall on the conclusion of the poll seal the records of the votes prepared by him and prepare a report stating the number of the voters who attended and the number of votes cast in favour of each candidate. The records sealed and the report prepared by a Presiding Officer shall be forwarded without delay to the Magistrate. When the Magistrate has received the records and reports from all the polling centres in the district, he shall, after checking the records with reports, record a note in his own hand stating which of the candidates has received the largest number of votes and shall declare such candidate to be duly elected.

23. In the case of an equal number of votes being recorded in favour of two or more candidates, all of whom cannot be declared to be elected, selection shall be made from such candidates by lot in such manner as the Magistrate shall deem fit and thereupon the candidate thus selected shall be declared to be duly elected.

24. The name of the elected candidate shall be forwarded by the District Magistrate to the Provincial Government for publication in the Calcutta Gazette.

25. No election shall be invalidated on account of any irregularity whatever unless it appears that the irregularity was such as materially to affect the results of the election.

26. All costs incurred for the preparation of the register of voters, the publication of notices, the holding of elections or taking any other necessary action under these rules shall be payable from the District Primary Education Fund.

27. In the case of a casual vacancy occurring under section 12 of the Act on account of the removal, resignation or death of the elected member, the vacancy shall be filled by election in the manner provided in these rules, but no register of voters shall be prepared or published under rule 4 or rule 5 and the register of voters used at the election of the member whose place is proposed to be filled by the bye-election shall be treated as the register of voters for such bye-election, and the Magistrate shall, as soon as may be after the date referred to in section 7 of the Act has been fixed by the Provincial Government, fix under rule 7 the date for the bye-election and issue the notices referred to in that rule.

PART VI.

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly; Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly; and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of State on the 20th February, 1939:—

C. OF S. BILL NO. 1 OF 1939.

A Bill to amend the Indian Succession Act, 1925, as respects intestate succession among Parsis.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to intestate succession among Parsis; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preliminary.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Succession Act (Amendment) Act, 1939.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, appoint.

2. For sections 50 to 56 and Schedule II, Parts I and II, of the Indian Succession Act, 1925, the following shall be substituted:—

"50. In this Chapter, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) any word expressing relationship shall be understood as denoting only a legitimate relative, and the "relative" shall be understood to include a lineal descendant as well as any other relative by blood or marriage;

(b) a child, whether of the intestate or any relative of the intestate, if conceived during the lifetime of the intestate and born alive after the intestate's death, shall be regarded in the same way as a child born during the intestate's lifetime and surviving the intestate;

(c) no widow of any relative of the intestate shall receive a share as such or be taken into consideration as such in the distribution of the intestate's property if she has married again during the lifetime of the intestate;

(d) when property is directed to be divided between members of a class, if there be only one such member, the whole shall be given to such member;

(e) the words "dead" or "deceased" shall be understood to mean "dead in the lifetime of the intestate", and the words "leaves", "leaving", "left" to mean "leaves, leaving or left surviving the intestate";

(f) when property is directed to be divided per stirpes among the lineal descendants of a deceased person, it shall first be divided among the children of the deceased who may be living, and those of them who may have died leaving a lineal descendant or descendants, the share of each such deceased child shall be divided in the same way among the children of such, and the same rule followed for remoter lineal descendants; further, in making each division and sub-division, if the share to be divided is that of a deceased male each male sub-sharer shall receive double the share of each female sub-sharer, but if the share to be divided is that of a female all the sub-sharers shall be equal without regard to sex.

DISTRIBUTION IF INTESTATE LEAVES A LINEAL DESCENDANT OR DESCENDANTS.

51. If a male Parsi dies intestate leaving a lineal descendant or descendants the property of which he dies intestate shall be divided according to the following rules:—

(a) It shall be divided among his children so that the share of each son shall be double the share of each daughter.

(b) If he also leaves a widow, she shall receive a share equal to that of each son.

(c) If he also leaves his father, the father shall receive a share equal to that of each son, and if he also leaves his mother she shall receive a share equal to that of each daughter.

(d) If a child of the intestate be dead leaving a widow or a lineal descendant or descendants or a widow or widows of a lineal descendant or descendants, a share shall be assigned to such child and be dealt with under section 53 below. If such deceased child has left neither a widow nor a lineal descendant nor a widow of a lineal descendant, no share shall be assigned to such child.

52. If a female Parsi dies intestate leaving a lineal descendant or descendants, the property of which she dies intestate shall be divided according to the following rules:—

(a) It shall be divided among her children in equal shares.

(b) If she also leaves a widower, he shall receive a share equal to that of each child.

(c) If a child of the intestate be dead leaving a widow or a lineal descendant or descendants or a widow or widows of a lineal descendant or descendants, a share shall be assigned to such child and be dealt with under section 53 below. If such deceased child has left no widow, nor lineal descendant, nor widow of a lineal descendant, no share shall be assigned to such child.

53. (a) If a male child of a Parsi intestate be dead leaving a lineal descendant or descendants, the share of such child shall be divided among the children of such child, so that the share of each son shall be double the share of each daughter, and if he has also left a widow she shall receive a share equal to that of each son.

(b) If a female child of a Parsi intestate be dead leaving a lineal descendant or descendants, the share of such child shall be divided equally among her children.

(c) If a child of a deceased child of the intestate be dead leaving a lineal descendant or descendants, the share of such deceased grandchild shall be divided in the same way as that of a child under clauses (a) and (b) of this section, and the same rule shall apply to remoter deceased lineal descendants of the intestate who may be entitled to a share.

(d) If a deceased child or other lineal descendant of the intestate entitled to a share has left no lineal descendant but has left a widow, or a widow or widows of a lineal descendant or descendants, if there be only one such widow she shall receive half the share of such deceased sharer, but if there be more than one such widow two-thirds of such share shall be equally divided between them.

(e) The half or one-third share that would be left after the widow or widows have received their shares under clause (d) of this section shall be divided per stirpes between the lineal descendants of the intestate.

DISTRIBUTION IF INTESTATE LEAVES NO LINEAL DESCENDANT BUT LEAVES A WIDOW OR WIDOWER OR A WIDOW OR WIDOWS OF A LINEAL DESCENDANT OR DESCENDANTS.

54. If a Parsi dies intestate leaving no lineal descendant but leaving his or her own widow or widower, or a widow or widows of lineal descendant or descendants, the property of which he or she dies intestate shall be divided according to the following rules:—

(a) If the intestate leaves a widow or widower but no widow of a lineal descendant, the widow or widower shall receive half of the property.

(b) If the intestate leaves a widow or widower and also a widow or widows of a lineal descendant or descendants, the intestate's own widow or widower shall receive one-third of the said property, and the widow or widows of lineal descendants shall receive another third of the said property, and the same shall be divided equally among them if there be more than one.

(c) If the intestate leaves no widow or widower, but only one widow of a lineal descendant, she shall receive half of the said property, but if the intestate leaves more than one such widow they shall receive two-thirds of such property and the same shall be divided equally among them.

(d) The half or one-third of the property that would be left after the persons mentioned in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of this section have received their shares shall be distributed among the relatives of the intestate in the order specified in Part I of Schedule II subject to the rules that—

(1) relatives included in Article 1 shall be preferred to those included in Article 2, those in Article 2 to those in Article 3, and so on in succession;

(2) where under any Article living relatives of a particular class are directed to share with lineal descendants of deceased relatives of the same class, the property shall be primarily divided among the living and the deceased relatives called hereafter primary sharers, and the share of each deceased primary sharer shall be divided per stirpes among his lineal descendants.

(3) if the primary sharers included in the same Article are of the same sex, or if the intestate is a female, the shares of all such sharers shall be equal, but if the intestate is a male the share of each such male sharer shall be double that of each female.

(e) If there are no relatives entitled to the share under clause (d) of this section, the whole of the said property shall be distributed among the persons entitled to receive shares under clauses (a), (b) and (c) of this section subject to the rules that—

(1) if there be only one such person he or she shall receive the whole,

(2) if there be more than one, if one of them be the widow or widower of the intestate, she or he shall receive half, and the other half shall be divided equally among the others, but if the intestate leaves no widow or widower the whole shall be divided equally among them.

DISTRIBUTION IF INTESTATE LEAVES NEITHER WIDOW NOR WIDOWER NOR A LINEAL DESCENDANT NOR A WIDOW OF A LINEAL DESCENDANT.

55. If a Parsi dies intestate leaving neither widow nor widower nor a lineal descendant nor a widow of a lineal descendant, his or her relatives in the order set forth in Part II of Schedule II shall receive the property of which he or she dies intestate, the distribution being subject to the same rules as are set forth in clause (d) of section 54 for distribution among the relatives in Part I.

56. If there be no relative entitled to succeed to the property of which a Parsi dies intestate under sections 51 to 55, the relatives who would have been entitled to succeed under section 48 if the intestate had been not a Parsi shall receive such property."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

At present the law that governs intestate succession among Parsis is that laid down in 1865 in Act No. XXI of that year. It is true the said Act has been repealed by the Indian Succession Act No. XXXIX of 1925 but this has made no change in the law, as all the provisions of the Act of 1865 have been incorporated verbatim in sections 50 to 56, and Schedule II, Parts I and II, of the Act of 1925. It has been felt for a long time by members of the Parsi Community that this enactment, more than 70 years old, requires amendment both in form and substance for various reasons. The meaning of some of its provisions is doubtful; some of these doubts have been removed by judicial decisions. It is also incomplete in some respects, and some of these deficiencies have had to be supplied by other judicial decisions. Certain other changes seem necessary in accordance with present day Parsi sentiment and usage. The arrangement and language also require some revision. In order to remove doubts, supply deficiencies, incorporate as far as possible the judicial decisions which the community has accepted, inroduce changes commonly desired and make the arrangement more systematic it has been thought best to redraft the whole enactment. In making this redraft, so far as arrangement and language are concerned, other parts of the Act of 1925 have as far as possible been followed, e.g., by introducing sub-headings as in the previous Chapter relating to intestate succession among non-Parsis, so as to give a grasp of the subject as a whole. For convenience the new sections of the Draft Bill have been numbered 50 to 56 so that they may be substituted for the original sections of the Act of 1925 now in force.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 18th February, 1939:—

L. A. BILL No. 7 OF 1939.

A Bill to abolish the punishment of Whipping.

WHEREAS the punishment of Whipping has come to be regarded as a relic of less civilised times, it is expedient to abolish it altogether; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Abolition of Whipping Act, 19 .

(2) It extends to the whole of British India, inclusive of British Baluchistan and the Sonthal Parganas.

Whipping an illegal punishment.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in any Act or Rules or other provision having the force of law, whipping is not a legal punishment in British India.

Repeal of Act IV of 1909.

3. The Whipping Act, 1909, is hereby repealed. IV of 1909.

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the previous sanction required by clause (c) of section 108 (1) read with clause (a) of section 313 (4) of the Government of India Act, 1935.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Whipping as a legal punishment is a relic of barbarous days, and lowers both the Government who suffer it to be inflicted on offenders, and the people who endure it in the scale of civilized humanity. Nearly all civilized Governments have abolished it altogether and where it is retained, it is reserved for extremely heinous offences attended with revolting cruelty. The Whipping Act No. IV of 1909 prescribes whipping for the pettiest of offences no less than for a few grave offences. Whipping is quite frequently resorted to in petty cases of theft, etc., and is often attended by extreme barbarity and excruciating bodily pain. The object of this Bill is to abolish whipping as a legal punishment.

Third Forecast of the Wheat Crop of Bengal, 1938-39.

(Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1936-37, the area under wheat in Bengal has represented some 0·4 per cent. of the total area under wheat in India. The ratio of the irrigated wheat acreage to total wheat acreage in (a) British India and (b) in the territory now reported on has, in the five years ending 1936-37, averaged (a) 42·0 and (b) 9·2 per cent., respectively.)

Character of the season.—As indicated in the Second Forecast prolonged drought adversely affected the growth of the crop. The deterioration was particularly noticeable in the districts of Murshidabad, Jalpaiguri, Pabna and Faridpur. Some damage was also caused by insect-pests at places.

Acreage.—According to the estimates of the District Officers the total area sown comes to 174,000 acres this year as against 160,900 acres both in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

Outturn.—The average provincial outturn as worked out from the district estimates is 73 per cent. as against 80 per cent. both in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

Taking the normal yield to be 9 3/5 maunds per acre, the gross yield of the crop for the province is estimated at 44,800 tons this year as against 45,400 tons both in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

The smoke evil.

The air we breathe.

There can be no real public health in a city where the atmosphere is polluted with artificial impurities.

Clean air is a necessity. Health and strength can only be enjoyed when the citizens of a city live in clean surroundings. The smoke evil contaminates the air, and destroys health and property. It reduces sunlight, influences atmospheric conditions by creating fog and gloom and creates conditions detrimental to the physiology of the population. The greatest care is taken of water, milk or food supplies, but because it is the air, people are prepared to put up with conditions, which from an æsthetic or hygienic view point, are totally indefensible. The development of a smoke conscience is important, if we are to be progressive. As we are compelled to breathe the air which surrounds us its pollution by man is criminal.

Cause of pollution.

Black smoke.

The black smoke that contaminates the atmosphere is produced mainly by the combustion of coal in furnaces devoted to commercial work; and partly in domestic furnaces. The evils caused thereby are not difficult to visualise. The real difficulty lies in bringing those who are responsible for the emission of black smoke to recognise the extent to which they are damaging health and property. Apart from this, black smoke is an indication of fuel waste, and from a purely economic point of view nobody has stronger reasons to wage war against it than the man who makes it. Smoke abatement and fuel economy work harmoniously together. In smoke prevention from steam boilers, the smartest engineer is the one who gets his pound of steam for the least possible fuel burnt.

Factory smoke.

The air for combustion.

The problem of the elimination of black smoke lies in the combustion chamber. The chief cause being a low furnace temperature. All fuel relies for its combustion upon the oxygen in the air. We must, therefore, have sufficient air. The correct quantity is very important. If there is an insufficiency of draught, the fuel will not be completely burnt. If too much, the air excess lowers the temperature of the furnace, and will thus not only make smoke, but carry away the heat released from the fuel up the chimney, to waste.

Thus do we see that coal is wasted by too much air; lives are lost by too little pure air.

To arrest this excessive smoke and loss of fuel, it is necessary to ascertain the percentage of CO_2 (carbon dioxide) in the escaping gases. In practice, it is found necessary to allow for a slight excess of air above the theoretical quantity required. When burning coal, 12 per cent. of CO_2 is reckoned good; better results up to 14 per cent. may be recorded by a careful engineer, but with 12 per cent. there will be sufficient oxygen to maintain a high furnace temperature resulting in smokeless combustion. Waste also occurs when there is presence of carbon monoxide in the escaping gases.

There are many other factors which contribute, singly or together, in producing a low furnace temperature. These may easily be remedied by any intelligent and careful engineer. It is very essential that a boiler room should be equipped with appliances and apparatus as aids to smokeless combustion. Without thermometers, steam meters, draught gauges and CO_2 recorders, the engineer of the plant is groping in the dark. A little money spent in this direction will repay the owner a hundredfold by a saving in fuel costs.

In Calcutta, when the activities of the Bengal Smoke Nuisances Commission commenced in 1906, the average emission of black smoke recorded per chimney was 13·1 minutes per hour; to-day it stands at ·08 minute. Much of this success is due to the generous co-operation of the owners with the Commission. It is realised that smoke is coal and in its prevention lies a gilt-edged investment.

Domestic smoke nuisance.

The atmosphere of Calcutta.

It is common knowledge that rain washes the impurities from the air and that a 12 mile an hour wind scavenges the air and simplifies a city's smoke problem.

Locally the wind velocity averages about 2 miles per hour, but when, as in our cold weather months, wind and rain totally fail, the city and its environments are said to be in the grip of a "smoke fog" The air is rendered pungent and unfit for human consumption; there is an increased number of deaths from respiratory diseases. Domestic and kindred smoke is discharged at ground level and, under such weather conditions, remains stationary for hours together Particularly bad are those suburban bustees areas where the poor of the city live; there, the smoke discharged into the atmosphere arises from coke and wood fires for cooking purposes; from the burning upon the ground of wood scraps, cow dung cakes and other refuse, around which families warm themselves; and from the burning of "stolen" raw coal in piles upon the ground, for the dual purpose of heating as well as conversion of the fuel into semi-coke which is later placed on the market for sale. Electricity and gas and even good coke is beyond the reach of this class of citizen; but it is some consolation to know that in the prosperous and well-to-do areas such smokeless appliances are being used in increasing quantities.

The fact must be brought to light forcefully that the general physical tone is lowered as the result of this pollution of the air by smoke, as it decreases the amount of oxygen, so vitally important for life's existence. There is no legislation for domestic smoke nuisance in Calcutta. The co-operation of the public in general, on a large scale, is imperative towards solving the domestic smoke problem. The onus is clearly on every citizen to make the city of his abode, healthy and clean.

General control by the Commission.

The Commission, which represents all the interests concerned in the abatement of smoke nuisance, held 10 meetings in the year under review. It maintained contact with the various smoke departments, fuel, engineering and research institutions in Europe and America, and kept abreast of the latest progress in the scientific use of fuel towards the abatement of industrial smoke.

During the year action was taken as under:—

Offences reported for departmental action—1,441.

Offences reported by telephone for departmental action—893.

Inspections and tests of installations—3,659.

Statutory warnings—14.

Prosecutions—6.

In addition to the above preventive action, 140 steamships and launches and 121 locomotives were reported to the local marine and railway authorities for their usual departmental action, which in all cases was readily undertaken.

The maximum fine imposed for offences under the Act was Rs. 175 and the minimum Rs. 35.

Of the six prosecutions which were launched (Appendix II), resort to the penal law was found necessary in four cases because furnaces, flues and chimneys were wrongfully constructed without first submitting plans for the approval of the Commisison. It may be again stated that the Commission is advisory and not repressive. Well-designed plants are necessary for smoke prevention and fuel economy and it is not only obligatory but convenient to consult the Commission whose wide experience is always at the disposal of the public.

Detecting offensive chimneys.

A watch is kept on the smoke nuisance from the Central Smoke Observatory which is equipped with a telephone so that the owner or manager of an offensive chimney may be called up and the emission of smoke of prohibited density brought to his notice. Observations of locomotives, steamers, launches and minor industrial plants are taken locally. The total number of observations made during the year was 6,682.

The observation of smoke is carried out by the two Assistant Inspectors who alternately devote half a day to this duty. A Smoke Inspector is a qualified engineer and a combustion specialist, and his principal duties are to ascertain by tests, etc., the causes of defective installations and suggest means to remedy the same. His services are, therefore, chiefly required at the factory where he can advise on some prevention and fuel economy. Each case of smoke nuisance may call for a particular solution according to varying conditions.

European and American smoke abatement organisations employ Smoke Observers, in addition to Smoke Inspectors. In 1926, the Commission recommended to Government that Smoke Observers should be appointed to relieve the Inspectors, so as to allow the latter to devote full time towards the technical duties of smoke abatement. Administrative approval was obtained in 1927 to this recommendation but the Commission regrets that financial stringency is still a hindrance to this important scheme being carried into effect.

Plans for furnaces, flues and chimneys.

Smoke prevention must begin at the furnace and not at the chimney top. Properly proportioned furnaces, flues and chimneys are the basic factors for efficient smoke abatement; they increase the power of the plant and reduce the overhead and fuel costs. If a plant is properly designed there should be no trouble in complying with requirements of the Smoke Act. During the year the Commission examined and approved 63 plans, of which 40 were made in the office of the Commission, covering nearly all types of industrial furnaces. Plans were also supplied on request to mills outside the controlled area and to other provinces. The number of plans approved by the Commission since 1916, when the Act was amended, to govern construction, reconstruction, alteration or addition to plants, now totals 1,376. The success attained by the Commission through this most important measure is reflected in the low average emission of smoke, per chimney, which has been steadily maintained for the last seven years (Appendix I).

The total fees received during the year on account of plans, etc., are detailed below:—

	Rs.
For making plans	334
For approval of plans	565
For final inspection of chimney, etc., and grant of permission	1,070
Total ...	1,969

Complaints.

The Commission controls approximately an area of 80 square miles and cannot with its small staff keep in touch with every case of smoke nuisance. It has again been indebted to the public for bringing cases to notices by means of complaints. During the year 81 complaints were received against 78 in the preceding year. The Commission assures the public that on receipt of a complaint prompt and careful enquiry is made. Relief is given, wherever possible, and the Commission endeavours to see that industry is not subjected to unreasonable demands.

Reduction of smoke by electricity and gas.

Electricity.

Electrical appliances both for commercial and domestic use should be encouraged as permanent remedies for atmospheric pollution.

The Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation state that "Electric motors totalling 21,361 h.p. have been installed within the area of this company's supply during the year 1937.

Many of these motors have been used in works which were previously driven by coal or oil, and the total number of such works which have changed over to electric drive is 20."

Gas.

The contribution towards solving the city's smoke problem by the Oriental Gas Company, Ltd., increases every year. They report a continued increase in the installation of cooking and water heating appliances for domestic purposes and have fitted up several large blocks of flats with gas appliances during the year.

The number of industrial concerns using gas for varied purposes has increased and the prospect of further development in this direction is very good.

During the year there was an increase of over 1,187 gas-consuming appliances which have replaced coal-burning chulas and furnaces. Further there is a recent demand for the use of gas coke in boilers and furnaces, etc., to displace coal.

Publicity.

No public health exhibition can be said to be a success that does not include a section giving publicity to the pollution of the air by smoke and its deleterious effects on health and property. As in past years, the Commission in collaboration with the Oriental Gas Company and the Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation had an exhibit for the 1937 "Calcutta Health Week." The section was well patronised by the public who showed a keen interest in the smoke exhibits and the appliances designed as permanent remedies for the "Smoke Evil." Leaflets on the abatement of domestic smoke were freely distributed.

Inspectorate.

Mr. R. Grant, Chief Inspector and Secretary, returned from Home leave on 18th October 1937. Mr. O. J. Field was appointed to officiate in his place in addition to his own duties and then retired on superannuation pension from 2nd November 1937. Mr. B. Mukerjee has been appointed as Junior Inspector on probation for two years from the 15th November 1937.

Conclusion.

The Commission records its grateful thanks to the various smoke, fuel and engineering research departments. Thanks are also due to those local owners, managers and engineers whose co-operation and valuable assistance have greatly helped the Commission, and to the technical staff for their energy and loyalty in carrying out the policy of the Commission.

Resolution on the Triennial Report on the working of hospitals and dispensaries in Bengal for the years 1935, 1936 and 1937.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

Department of Public Health and Local Self-Government.

Medical.

RESOLUTION—No. 803MEDL.

Calcutta, the 22nd April 1939.

Part I.—Calcutta Hospitals and Dispensaries.

Read—

The Triennial Report on the working of hospitals and dispensaries in Bengal for the years 1935, 1936 and 1937.

Hospitals and dispensaries.—At the end of the triennium the total number of hospitals and dispensaries of all classes stood at 54. These included 3 Ayurvedic and 4 Homeopathic hospitals and 7 institutions for the treatment of only females. Twenty nine hospitals provided accommodation for inpatients while the remaining institutions provided treatment for out-patients only.

The total number of beds in the hospitals in Calcutta was 4,375 as against 3,721 at the end of the preceding triennium. The addition of the Chittaranjan Seva Sadan and 4 Ayurvedic hospitals to the list and the establishment of a new Maternity Ward with 98 beds in the Carmichael Medical College Hospitals accounted for the bulk of the increase. The rest of the increase occurred in the Medical College Hospitals.

One of the outstanding events of the triennium was the construction and opening of the Sir John Anderson Casualty Block of the Medical College Hospitals as a result of the efforts of the Centenary Committee on the occasion of the celebration of the centenary of the Medical College in 1935. This has removed a long-felt want of an up-to-date Emergency Block in the Medical College Hospitals and has contributed greatly to the convenience of the public by considerably relieving the overcrowding in the Indian Male Surgical Ward of the hospital. Partial use was also made of the Eden extension Block, which had been lying unutilised since its construction several years ago, by opening 10 beds on a paying basis.

In spite of the provision of a large number of beds in excess of the schedule in all hospitals in Calcutta the number of beds in the hospitals in the city which, besides providing for the needs of the people of Calcutta, draw patients from all over Bengal, still falls far short of the minimum requirements.

Attendance and admission.—The aggregate number of patients treated in the hospitals during the triennium including Ayurvedic and Homeopathic institutions was 3,507,634 or an average of 1,169,211 a year as against 2,741,455 or an average of 913,818 a year in the preceding triennium. Of these 287,382 were treated as indoor and 3,220,252 as out-patients against 189,636 and 2,551,819, respectively in the previous triennium.

This large increase in the number of patients is mainly attributed to the growing popularity of hospitals amongst all classes of people. Up-to-date facilities of modern treatment are available to a larger extent in Calcutta than in the mufassil and this led to a very heavy rush on the Medical College Group of Hospitals, which as usual, treated a larger number of inpatients and outdoor patients than any other hospitals in Calcutta.

The Surgeon-General has in his report given an interesting analysis of the causes for the overcrowding in the Medical College Group of Hospitals and has indicated the possible remedies. Government agree that the solution of the problem lies in the improvement and expansion of the hospitals in Calcutta and in the improvement of the hospitals at district headquarters as far as possible on modern lines and by equipping them with the required facilities for treatment of serious cases.

The mortality table shows that the rate of mortality continued to be unusually high in the Campbell Hospital. This is ascribed generally to the fact that it contains a large number of beds for infectious diseases such as, cholera, smallpox, cerebral meningitis, etc., of which a large proportion proves fatal. Among other reasons for this high mortality is the fact that the majority of patients in this hospital come from the poorer classes which seek hospital treatment very late in the course of their sickness. A scheme for improvement of the Campbell Hospital is engaging the attention of Government.

Nursing.—As in the past the Calcutta Hospital Nurses' Institution conducted the nursing services in the Presidency General Hospital and in the Medical College Group of Hospitals. Government have found it necessary to come to the rescue of this institution whenever it has been faced with a financial crisis and the normal annual subvention given to the institution by Government has had to be considerably increased owing to the shrinkage of the contributions received by it from the public. The institution also received a separate contribution from Government for nursing arrangements for the Carmichael Medical College Hospital, the Sir John Anderson Casualty Block and Eden extension beds. A separate grant was also made to the institution for the maintenance of pupil nurses and dais.

So far as the Medical College Group of Hospitals is concrned, the nursing services were inadequate to the needs of the hospitals and the nursing staff had to work under continuous pressure and strain which were aggravated by the serious overcrowding in these hospitals.

Government endorse the well-deserved tribute which the Surgeon-General has paid to the nursing staff for having done their duties patiently and ungrudgingly in spite of difficulties and handicaps

Nursing in the Campbell Hospital continued to be extremely unsatisfactory. A scheme for the provision of adequate nursing including training of Indian nurses in this hospital has engaged the serious attention of Government and since the closing of the triennium, provision has been made for building and equipping necessary quarters for the nursing staff as a preliminary to the inauguration of the scheme.

The Nursing Council under the Bengal Nurses' Act of 1934 was constituted in March 1936, and rules and regulations have since been framed and adopted. It is hoped that the Council will be able to help materially towards the development of the nursing services and in solving the problem of nursing in the province.

Among other reasons for the proportionately large expenditure on nursing is that a sufficient number of Indian women has not hitherto been abailable for training. A scheme for recruitment of Indian women in the nursing staff in the Medcal College Hospitals was sanctioned but the response is reported to have been poor. Further investigations are being made with a view to popularising this excellent service among Indian women.

The problem of adequate nursing in the various hospitals cannot be solved unless an economic but sufficient scheme of nursing is evolved. The whole matter is receiving the consideration of Government.

Finance.—The total receipts of State, Public, Local Fund and Aided hospitals in Calcutta amounted to Rs. 1,05,93,265 as compared with Rs. 1,04,17,788 during the previous triennium. Contribution from Government accounted for Rs. 55,37,417 or 52;2 per cent. of the total income against 49;09 per cent. during the preceding three years. Of this contribution Rs. 4,23,895 went to the private and local fund hospitals, the balance being spent on maintaining the State institutions. Contributions from the local and municipal funds amounted to Rs. 21,85,356 against Rs. 23,45,629 in the preceding triennium, showing a decrease of Rs. 1,60,273.

The Carmichael Medical College Hospital received the largest share of the private subscriptions and donations made during the period.

Fees and contributions yielded a sum of Rs. 12,51,587 out of which Rs. 8,74,438 was realised in the State Hospitals. The aggregate expenditure for the maintenance of the Calcutta Hospitals was Rs. 1,01,05,788 against Rs. 95,27,170 in the preceding triennium. The invested capital at the end of the three years stood at Rs. 26,70,609, a far from adequate figure considering the magnitude of the humanitarian work done in these hospitals.

Part II—Mufassil hospitals and dispensaries.

The triennium under review ended with 1,577 hospitals and dispensaries practising various systems of medicine as against 1,346 at the beginning of the period, showing a net increase of 231 hospitals and dispensaries. 1,488 institutions followed the Western system of medicine and of the remainder 74 were Homeopathic, 11 Ayurvedic, and 4 Unani dispensaries.

The above figures are exclusive of dispensaries and centres for the treatment of malaria and kala-azar and for combating epidemic, or for other special purposes.

The total number of beds available for inpatients in the various mufassil hospitals increased from 6,000 to 6,347.

In the scheme of rural medical service, the hospitals in headquarters of districts formed an important link, in that these Sadar hospitals served not only the municipal towns in which they are situated, but also the rural areas comprised in the district in the matter of treatment of serious ailments. The condition of these hospitals at headquarters has been generally unsatisfactory owing, among other reasons, to the inelastic finances of the local bodies which are responsible for their maintenance. This deficiency attracted the attention of Government and a survey was made in 1937 of the needs and requirements of the various Sadar Hospitals in the matter of buildings, equipments and additional staff which would enable these hospitals to provide medical relief on modern lines.

A scheme for improvement of local bodies hospitals at district headquarters has since been drawn up and is under examination by Government. It provides for capitals grants-in-aid for enlargement and improvement of these hospitals on condition that the balance of the expenditure involved is met from local resources and that the efficient maintenance of these hospitals is guaranteed by the local bodies.

A grant of Rs. 3 lakhs for putting this scheme into effect was provided in the budget for 1938-39, of which about 1/3rd has already been disbursed and provision for the balance has been repeated in the budget for 1939-40.

The scheme of subsidies to thana and village dispensaries with the object of encouraging the establishment of rural centres of treatment was continued during the triennium. 102 dispensaries at thana headquarters and 287 village dispensaries received the grant-in-aid during the closing year of the triennium as against 79 and 226, respectively, during 1934-35.

Considerable impetus was given to rural medical relief by the Government of India subvention for rural uplift in 1935-36. A large portion of the grant was earmarked for meeting the capital expenditure for the establishment of efficient union board dispensaries. The number of village dispensaries established as a result of this subsidy up to the end of the triennial period was 116.

Attendance.—The number of patients treated in the mufassil hospitals and dispensaries during the three years under report aggregated 32,275,660 against 29,947,708, in the previous triennium, showing an increase of 2,327,952. Inpatients treated during this period numbered 287,064 against 255,305 during the preceding triennium. The steady increase in the number of both outdoor and indoor patients while being partly due to the unhealthy conditions prevailing in the country and the economic depression of the masses is attributable to a large extent to the growing popularity of hospital treatment.

As in the previous triennium, the Mitford Hospital, Dacca, catered for the largest number of patients, the Fraser Hospital at Burdwan and the Victoria Hospital at Darjeeling following next in order.

Nursing.—Nursing in the hospitals in the rural areas continued to be extremely unsatisfactory. In by far the majority of these hospitals no nursing was done. In 6 hospitals at district headquarters there were arrangements for nursing although inadequate. In 6 others a small number of nurses was employed. Thus, except in the case of a few of the main hospitals, nursing was left to the relatives, compounders and other servants.

There has been some improvement in the position since the end of the triennium, indicating a growing appreciation of nursing in effective hospital treatment.

Finance.—The gross income of all mufassil hospitals and dispensaries was Rs 97,35,446, showing an increase of Rs. 17,15,489, or 12·09 per cent. The share borne by the local bodies accounted for 58·74 per cent. against 60·75 per cent. of the previous triennium. Subscriptions and donations yielded 12·55 per cent. of the total receipts, as compared with 11·84 per cent. in the preceding three-year period.

Fees and contributions from patients showed a welcome increase, indicating that a levy of small fees made with proper discrimination adds to the slender resources of medical institutions in the mufassil without affecting the flow of patients seeking and undergoing treatment.

A gradual increase took place under the heads—salaries, medicine and diet. This was to a large extent due to the opening of new institutions, but partly also to the expanded activities of some of the existing hospitals and dispensaries.

The invested capital at the close of the triennium under review stood at Rs. 32,67,574, an increase of Rs. 1,32,689.

Medical Education.—The two Medical Colleges in Calcutta, viz., the Calcutta Medical College, which is entirely maintained by the State, and the Carmichael Medical College, which is an aided institution continued to impart medical education up to the standard of the M. B. degree of the Calcutta University and the M. M. F. diploma of the State Medical Faculty.

Compared with the preceding triennium there appears to have been a slight fall in the average number of admissions of male students and slight increase in that of female students. There were no female students in the Carmichael Medical College.

The number of students passed out of the Medical College showed a gradual decline.

The Surgeon-General has drawn attention to the fact that there were no Muslim students in the Carmichael Medical College, whereas the number of Muslim students seeking admission into the Medical College and of those who passed out as qualified doctors continued to be on the decline in spite of the relaxation of the standard of academic qualifications in regard to admission in their case. This is generally ascribed to the comparative poverty of the community and the costliness of medical education of the higher standard spread over six years.

A scheme of scholarships has been devised in order to encourage meritorious but poor Muslim students to take up medical education in the State Medical College and Schools. It is hoped that this scheme will have the effect of increasing the number of new Muslim entrants into these institutions and helping them in prosecuting their studies without being hampered by financial difficulties. A similar scheme has also been devised for encouraging medical education among students belonging to the scheduled castes.

As in the preceding triennium, there were nine medical schools in this province, of which 6 were State institutions 2 were aided by Government and one was an entirely private school.

The number of students under training and the number of students passed out as Licentiates showed very little fluctuation as compared with the preceding triennium.

The state of medical schools in the province received the attention of the Inspection Committee of the Bengal Council of Medical Registration, and various defects in the arrangements for teaching and in the hospitals attached to the schools were brought to the notice of Government. According to an approved policy Government have undertaken to maintain the schools up to the requisite standard, the local authorities being responsible for the attached hospitals.

The excellent example set up by local bodies and other interests concerned in the improvement of the Jalpaiguri Sadar Hospital found mention in the last resolution. The Surgeon-General has also made appreciatory mention of the co-operation of the local authorities during the triennium in effecting improvement in the Fraser Hospital attached to the Ronaldshay Medical School at Burdwan.

General remarks.—The triennium under review was one of the unhealthiest on record. All serious diseases showed an increase in incidence. Tuberculosis, kala-azar and beri-beri maintained an upward trend while cholera, dysentery, influenza and smallpox levied a higher toll. Malaria continued to be the most serious menace to public health in Bengal and accounted for the largest number of patients especiallly in the rural areas, viz., 9,411,020 against 9,123,748 and 7,196,318, respectively, in the two last preceding triennia.

The standard method of treating patients and the laboratory facilities for the microscopic diagnosis of malaria were largely improved and extended during the triennium under review and the supplies of quinine to all hospitals and dispensaries were considerably augmented, although they were hardly adequate to the needs of these institutions, far less to those of the great body of patients who could not resort to them. The prevention and treatment of malarial disease which constitutes one of the most important and perhaps the most difficult problem before the Medical and Public Health Departments continue to receive the anxious consideration of the Ministry.

The triennium under review was one of marked progress in the activities of the Medical Department. Receipts and expenditure on medical treatment, the number of dispensaries newly started and the number of beds maintained in various hospitals showed a steady increase. Of the various improvements effected during the period some of the most outstanding are briefly described below :—

Radium and Deep Therapy Treatment.—While Government were considering the introduction of radium treatment on a proper basis in the Medical College Hospitals a generous gift from His late Majesty King-Emperor George V Silver Jubilee Fund enabled the establishment of a radium fund and the purchase of an adequate quantity of radium. This proved a great boon to the Medical College Hospitals. A Deep Therapy apparatus has also been purchased at considerable cost for the proper treatment of malignant growths for the Medical College Hospitals. Since the close of the triennium the purchase of a similar apparatus for the Campbell Hospital has been sanctioned.

X-ray Facilities.—Only 8 hospitals in the areas outside Calcutta and Howrah had X-ray facilities at the beginning of the triennium. Six other hospitals have since installed X-ray apparatus as a result of commendable local efforts and other district hospitals are gradually falling into line.

Control of Drugs.—During the period under review the problem of adulteration of drugs, which has recently become a menace to the public health of the province, engaged the close attention of Government. The question of legislation for preventing the manufacture and sale of spurious drugs was also taken up by the Central Government. Pending such legislation, Government have, since the close of the triennium, made arrangements for the testing of drugs in the School of Tropical Medicine, Calcutta, and the Government of India have also set up a Biochemical Standardization Laboratory for testing drugs at the All India Institute of Hygiene and Public Health, Calcutta.

Dental Registration.—A Dental Registration Bill was drafted according to the recommendations of the Dental Registration Committee which submitted their report in March 1935. Since the close of the triennium the Bill has passed through the Select Committee and through the Legislative Assembly and is now before the Upper House.

Indigenous systems of medicine.—A General Council and State Faculty of Ayurvedic Medicine was established during the triennium with the object of regulating teaching of the Ayurvedic system according to approved standards and registration of Ayurvedic practitioners. Since then the establishment of General Council and State Faculties in Homeopathic and Unani systems of medicine has also been taken up.

System of Honorary Medical Officers. ment.—While Government were consi- Medical Officers to assist in the treatment of patients in the hospitals and thus encouraging popular support to the State Institutions which has attained a considerable measure of success in the State Hospitals of Calcutta was extended to the hospitals at district headquarters in 1937 and 136 Honorary Officers were employed in 24 institutions. The Honorary Medical Officers in Calcutta and the mufassil are reported to have rendered valuable service to the patients in the hospitals in which they were employed.

Non-official organisations.—Very valuable services were rendered in the matter of medical relief and towards the prevention of diseases by several non-official and voluntary organisations. The chief among these were the Bengal Branch of the British Empire Leprosy Relief Association, the Tuberculosis Association, Bengal, the Indian Red Cross Society, Bengal Branch, the St. John Ambulance Association, Bengal Branch, the Association for the Prevention of Blindness, Bengal, and the Calcutta Medical Aid and Research Society.

The scheme of a climatic sanatorium for tuberculosis patients, towards which a generous donor, Babu Ram Coomar Bangur made a gift of Rs. 2,82,000 during the early part of the triennium, is still under examination of Government and the question of a suitable site for the sanatorium is awaiting decision.

Conclusion.—The thanks of Government are due to the various officers who administered the Medical Department during the triennium and to Major-General P. S. Mills for his very interesting report.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 1517J.—27th April 1939.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 11 of the Calcutta Official Receiver's Act, 1938 (Bengal Act VII of 1938), the Governor is pleased to make the following rules for carrying into effect the objects of the said Act relating to the functions of the Official Receiver of the High Court in Calcutta, namely:—

1. "The Act" means the Calcutta Official Receiver's Act, 1938 (Bengal Act VII of 1938);

"Official Receiver" includes the Deputy Official Receiver;

"Bank" means the Reserve Bank of India.

2. (1) Whenever an order is passed by a Court making the Official Receiver personally liable to make good any loss incurred in the administration of an estate the Official Receiver shall, as soon as may be, furnish the Provincial Government with a copy of the Court's order along with his report thereon.

(2) Before making payment in satisfaction of the Court's orders, the Official Receiver shall obtain the orders of the Provincial Government for the payment and for allotment of funds.

3. The Official Receiver shall charge such fees by way of percentage or otherwise as are laid down in the following table:—

Scale of fees.

(1) On rents recovered from house properties ...	5 per cent.
(2) On outstandings recovered ...	5 per cent.
(3) On sales of properties, movable or immovable, calculated on the total value realised in any one estate ...	5 per cent.
(4)(a) On the estimated value of movable property (other than securities) not sold but taken charge of ...	5 per cent.
(b) on the face value of securities not sold but taken charge of ...	1 per cent.
(5) For special attendance out of office in cases not covered by items (1), (2), (3) or (4)—
For the first half hour ...	Rs. 15
Over half an hour and up to one hour ...	Rs. 30
For every hour or fraction of an hour over one hour ...	Rs. 15
(6) On rents recovered from zemindary properties	10 per cent. on gross collections.

Provided that, if in any case it appears to the Official Receiver that the circumstances of receivership are, or probably will be, such as to render his duties in relation thereto exceptionally simple, or otherwise of an exceptional character justifying this course, he may agree to accept fees at a lower rate of percentage; but in every such case the reasons for so doing shall be recorded by him, and a report of such case shall forthwith be submitted to the Provincial Government. In accepting such lower rate of fees the Official Receiver may stipulate that the total remuneration shall not be less than some named sum. The Official Receiver may also accept a lower rate of fees where a special charge for establishment is ordered by the Court, and shall report the facts forthwith to the Provincial Government.

4. The Official Receiver shall maintain a personal deposit account with the Bank entitled "The Account of the Official Receiver, Calcutta", and shall pass all moneys received by him in the administration of estates to the credit of the said account on the day of receipt, if possible, and in any case not later than the following day on which the Bank is open.

5. All Government securities, debentures and shares coming into the hands of the Official Receiver shall as soon as practicable be lodged in the Bank for safe custody, except in any case in which it may be necessary for him to retain them temporarily in connection with their sale, with the making over charge of an estate on termination of receivership or for any other purpose.

The costs of and incidental to any valuation or the keeping of properties in safe custody under this rule shall be borne by the respective estates.

7. The Official Receiver shall ensure that the cash balance in his personal deposit account does not fall below a sum of Rupees two lakhs.

8. When in the opinion of the Official Receiver the cash balance standing to the credit of his personal deposit account is in excess of the amount required for the time being both to meet demands in respect of properties under his control and to make any payments of interest or fees or any other payments prescribed by the Act or by these rules, he shall request the Bank to invest such excess in the purchase of Government promissory notes, bonds or treasury bills in his name. Such notes, bonds, or bills shall be kept in safe custody in the Bank.

9. The interest on, dividends from, and proceeds of the investments referred to in rule 8 shall be collected by the Bank, and the Bank shall credit the same to the "Account of the Official Receiver, Calcutta," and shall intimate to the Official Receiver, the details and

Provided that nothing in this rule or in rule 8 shall affect any sum in regard to which directions shall have been given to the Official Receiver under sub-section (4) of section 9 of the Act.

10. When in the opinion of the Official Receiver, the cash balance standing to the credit of his personal deposit account is insufficient to meet the demands referred to in rule 8, he shall in consultation with the Bank, arrange to realise such an amount of the securities or investments deposited therein (other than those in respect of which directions may have been given by the Court under sub-section (4) of section 9 of the Act), as may in his opinion be sufficient to provide the funds required and shall credit the proceeds of such realisation to the said account.

11. The Official Receiver shall submit to the Provincial Government half-yearly for necessary action a statement of all securities or investments realised under the provisions of rule 10, showing details of the realised profit or actual loss resulting from such transactions.

12. All fees, percentages and remuneration chargeable by the Official Receiver shall be credited by him in his fee ledger account, and shall be transferred weekly from his personal deposit account to the credit of Provincial Revenues.

13. (1) The accounts of the Official Receiver shall be audited concurrently by the Examiner of Local Accounts, Bengal. The audit shall be conducted locally in the office of the Official Receiver. No. 13-I.—6th April 1939.—It is hereby notified for general information that in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 6 and 11 of the Canals Act, 1864 (Bengal Act V of 1864), the Governor intends to make the following rules and fix the following rates of tolls for the line of navigation known as the Surjamani khal in the district of Bakarganj and as defined in the notification No. 10-I., dated the 6th April 1939.

2. Any objection or suggestion with respect thereto should reach the undersigned before the 29th May 1939:—

Rules and rates of tolls.

1. Every vessel on entering the channel and before passing the gate at either end or even when entering the channel from a side khal between the gates shall be liable to measurement for the purpose of ascertaining the tolls payable; in case of any reasonable doubt arising, a vessel may be measured again by any person appointed by the district board of Bakarganj on this behalf.

2. Vessels for the purpose of determination of maundage shall be divided into two classes as below:—

Class I—To include all vessels of the types of country boats, including saltees and hapors (fish cages), house boats, kosh boats, green boats, and other similar types of boats.

Class II—To include steam boats, motor boats, flats, and barges and other square-built vessels.

3. The maundage of every vessel, whether laden or empty, shall, for the purpose of the Canals Act and of these rules, be determined by the following measurements:—

Class I.

A. The product of one quarter of the length of the vessel from stem to stern, measured along the water line, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the depth from the water line to the interior bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as equal to the number of maunds upon which tolls shall be levied.

B. The measurement of the length is to be made in feet, rejecting inches; the measurement of breadth and depth is to be made in feet and quarters of a foot, rejecting any remainder of less than a quarter of a foot.

C. The maundage on which the amount of toll is calculated shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 12½ maunds, any remainder of less than 12½ maunds being rejected. In the case of vessels exceeding 500 maunds by measurement, the maundage shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 50 maunds, rejecting any remainder of less than 50 maunds.

D. Saltees.—The product of one quarter of the inside length of the vessel, measured along the centre line from stem to stern, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the greatest depth measured from the top to the interior bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as equal to the number of maunds upon which tolls shall be levied.

Class II.

For vessels of class II the number of maunds obtained by the system of measurement prescribed for vessels of class 1 shall be increased by one-half. For vessels of this class above 5,000 maunds measurement, the maundage shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 500 maunds, rejecting any remainder of less than 500 maunds. In the case of steamers and motor boats the maundage determined as above shall be reduced by one-third as an allowance of engine space.

For vessels of class II which are furnished with reliable way bills the gross maundage of cargo shown by the way bills, or in the case of steamers the maundage obtained from multiplying the registered tonnage of the steamer by 27, may, at the option of the employer of the vessel or the steamer (as the case may be), be taken as the maundage on which tolls will be charged.

4. After the measurement the person in charge of the vessel shall be provided with a slip showing the maundage to be charged, which shall be presented at the toll office where he will be provided with a ticket, after payment of toll, which will permit the vessel to pass the gate or proceed through the channel.

5. Every ticket shall have entered on it the name of the serang, manjhee or other person in charge of the vessel, the date of entry, the maundage, the cargo, the amount of toll charged and the number of days for which the ticket remains current.

6. All tolls are payable on demand and shall be paid at the toll office before a vessel is permitted to proceed.

7. The ticket shall be kept on board the vessel and in possession of the person in charge of the vessel and shall be produced for inspection when demanded by the person authorised to collect tolls, or by any officer to whom such person is subordinate. If on demand the ticket is not produced, such person or officer shall assess the tollage as provided in rules 3 and 12 and shall require payment of toll, and unless and until the toll is paid, or the original ticket or a duplicate is produced as evidence that toll has already been paid, the vessel shall be liable to seizure and detention under the provisions of section 9 of the Act.

8. Duplicates of lost tickets, of which the numbers and dates can be satisfactorily established, will be granted by the collector of tolls on payment of a fee equal to one quarter of the total tollage, subject to a minimum fee of one anna per ticket.

9. All vessels, whether the property of the Crown, of the district board or other local bodies, or of private persons, are liable for toll except those specially exempted under these rules or by a resolution passed by the district board of Bakarganj from time to time.

10 The canal may be closed once a year for effecting the necessary repairs to it on seven days' notice of the intention so to close it being given; but in the event of any sudden emergency the canal may be closed at any time without prior notice, and no claim in such case by owners of vessels or others for compensation on account of detention shall be entertained.

11. No rafts exceeding 50 feet in length or 5 feet in breadth shall be permitted to enter the canal.

12. The rates of toll shall be as follows:—

(1) On all vessels, empty or laden, per hundred maunds—Eight annas.

(2) On all vessels, empty or laden, for 12½ maunds or less—One anna.

(3) On rafts of bamboos, grass, timber or other similar articles not exceeding 50 feet in length and 5 feet in breadth—Four annas each raft.

Tolls shall be levied at Dwipasa and Bauphal.

13. For boats frequently using the canal, such as boats carrying passengers, grass or perishable articles monthly tickets will be issued at ten times the ordinary toll.

14. Every vessel which has paid toll shall be allowed to remain in the canal for three days inclusive of the days of entry into and leaving the canal. A vessel remaining in any part of the canal longer than three days shall be charged demurrage equal to one-half of the toll for each day in excess of three days. No vessel shall be permitted to remain in the canal for more than one month, i.e., provided that this rule shall not apply to vessels holding monthly tickets under rule 13 above, which may remain in the canal for more than three days without payment of demurrage but not for more than one month at a time.

15. No vessel carrying exclusively police officers or servants, soldiers or officers of the Army in India, post mail runners, officers of the Department of Communications and Works (Irrigation) on duty, or officers or servants of the toll office for the canal referred to in these rules while on duty, shall be liable for toll in the canal.

16. Any matter relating to the mode of collection of tolls and other relevant points, not provided for in these rules, shall be decided by the district board of Bakarganj at a meeting and such decision shall be subject to the approval of the Provincial Government.

By order of the Governor,

Rules for the guidance of students seeking admission into the Medical College, Calcutta.

1. Two classes of students are admitted to the college:—

(1) Civil pupils' class.—Admission to this class is restricted to students, male or female, who were born within or whose parents are domiciled within the territorial jurisdiction of the Calcutta University. Three students are also eligible for admission from the Dacca University area and three from the Dacca Intermediate Board. Students from other provinces and from Indian States for whom places have been reserved are also eligible for admission to the college.

Only students who intend to take the M. B. examination of the Calcutta University are admitted to this class.

(2) Military pupils' class.—Only European or Anglo-Indian students are admitted to this class (see separate prospectus for military pupils whose admission is regulated by the Director-General, Indian Medical Service).

NOTE.—Casual students are not admitted. No students are admitted other than those in one or other of the above classes.

2. The minimum preliminary qualification for admission is the First Class Pass certificate of the I. Sc. examination of the Calcutta University with Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics or an examination recognised as equivalent to it. This rule may be relaxed in favour of Muhammadan students and such candidates having passed the said examination in the second division may be admitted, provided they are otherwise considered suitable, to make up the number allotted for the Muhammadan students. In assessing the claims of those eligible for admission special weight will be attached to proficiency in English.

3. (a) Female students qualified under rules 1 and 2 will be admitted to the college, provided there is a vacancy in the Swarnamoyee Hostel in which all female students must reside. For special reasons to be recorded in writing, the Principal may allow any female student to reside outside this Hostel.

(b) Female students studying in the college but belonging to provinces other than Bengal and not domiciled in Bengal will pay rents for accommodation in the Swarnamoyee Hostel.

4. The session commences with the summer term which begins on the 16th June and ends on the day before the commencement of the Durga Puja holidays. The winter term commences on the day when the College reopens after the Durga Puja holidays and ends on the following 31st March.

5. All applications direct from new students in Bengal for admission to the college should be accompanied by a fee of Rs. 4 which will not be refunded.

All new students must apply for admission to the Principal, Medical College, Calcutta, in the prescribed form, available in his office before the 25th May except in the following cases:—

(c) Students from the Dacca University area will be selected as follows:—

(i) Three students will be selected by the Dacca University, and (ii) Three students by the Chairman of the Dacca Intermediate and Secondary Education Board.

All applications from new students for admission into the Medical College must be accompanied by a certificate from the head of the Institution in which the candidate last studied and another from a responsible and trustworthy person.

6. The number of civil students to be admitted each year is 105. Vacancies are allotted as follows:—

Other provinces and Indian States including 1 from Nepal State	8
Dacca	6

Preference for admission will usually be given to candidates who have superior qualifications, but the final selection lies entirely with the Selection Committee appointed by Government.

These students must possess the qualifications mentioned in rule 2 and the nomination must reach the Principal, Medical College, Calcutta, before the 10th June each year, failing which the vacancies will be filled with local candidates. Vacancies arising by resignation or otherwise in places filled by reservation for the authorities in paragraph (a) cannot be filled again by those authorities during the year.

(b) Five seats shall be reserved annually for nomination by the Surgeon-General provided the candidates possess the necessary physical qualifications and at least a 2nd class pass certificate of the I.Sc. examination of the Calcutta University with the subjects mentioned in rule 2 or of an examination recognised as equivalent to it. These nominations shall ordinarily be made after the Selection Committee have made their choice under clause (c).

(c) The remaining vacancies shall be filled up by the Selection Committee specially appointed by Government from year to year. This Selection Committee will be the authority to select candidates belonging to Bengal.

(d) Every student selected by the Selection Committee for admission shall be examined medically in the Medical College, have his health card filled up and be passed fit before his fees are accepted, provided that if it is proposed to reject any student on the ground of his being medically unfit as a result of such examination, such decision shall not take effect unless it is sanctioned by the majority of votes of the members of the medical profession on the Selection Committee.

(e) Any candidate who has—

(i) endeavoured to enlist for his candidature the support of persons of influence or of Government officials,

PART VI

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly; Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly; and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 18th February, 1939:—

L. A. BILL No. 14 OF 1939.

A Bill further to amend the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:— V of 1908.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Code of Civil Procedure (Amendment) Act, 193 .

Amendment of section 60, Act V of 1908.

2. In sub-section (1) of section 60 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908,— V of 1908.

(i) in clause (c) of the proviso, after the words "belonging to an agriculturist" the words "or a labourer" shall be inserted; and

(ii) the present Explanation shall be numbered as Explanation II and the following shall be inserted as Explanation I, namely:—

"Explanation I.—For the purposes of this section, the word "labourer" shall include any person employed in trade or industry or agriculture whether or not in the employment of any employer and whose income does not exceed twenty-five rupees monthly."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Bill is to amend the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, so as to afford similar protection to a labourer as is enjoyed by an agriculturist.

To avoid the growing acuteness of the problem of housing of labourers, both in rural and urban areas, it is expedient that it should be exempted from sale in execution of a money decree.

When wild birds and animals of the forest are protected from annihilation by the Government, it is essential on humanitarian grounds also that poor labourers should be secured of their so-called resting place in order to enable them to earn their livelihood and rear their family even in the midst of extreme destitution.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 18th February, 1939:—

L. A. BILL No. 15 OF 1939.

A Bill to limit rates of interest and for that purpose further to amend the Usurious Loans Act, 1918.

WHEREAS it is expedient to limit the rates of interest and for that purpose further to amend the Usurious Loans Act, 1918; It is hereby enacted as follows:— X of 1918.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Usurious Loans (Amendment) Act, 193 .

Amendment of section 3, Act X of 1918.

2. In section 3 of the Usurious Loans Act, 1918 X of 1918. (hereinafter referred to as the said Act),—

(1) in sub-section (1),—

(a) in clause (a), for the word "and" occurring at the end the word "or" shall be substituted;

(b) for the words "may exercise all or any of the following powers" the words "shall exercise all the following powers or all such of them as may not be inappropriate to the case" shall be substituted; and

(c) in the proviso,—

(i) the brackets and figure "(i)" occurring in clause (i) shall be omitted; and

(ii) clause (ii) shall be omitted;

(2) in sub-section (2),—

(a) for clause (a) the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"(a) In this section, 'excessive' means—

(i) in excess of interest calculated at the rate of six per cent. per annum with annual rests or

(ii) if the Reserve Bank of India's rate at the date of the loan exceeds three per cent. per annum, in excess of interest calculated at three per cent. above such Reserve Bank rate with annual rests:

Provided that if the Court considers that having regard to the risk incurred as it appeared, or must be taken to have appeared to the creditor at the date of the loan a lower rate of interest was reasonable, all interest in excess of such rate shall be deemed 'excessive' "; and

(b) the Explanation shall be omitted; and

(3) to sub-section (3) the following shall be added at the end, namely:—

"or if such suit is instituted by a debtor for any of the reliefs specified in sub-section (1) of section 3".

Amendment of section 4, Act X of 1918.

3. In section 4 of the said Act, for the words "may exercise" the words "shall exercise" shall be substituted.

Insertion of new section 5 in Act X of 1918.

4. After section 4 of the said Act, the following section shall be added, namely:—

Punishment for evasion of Act relating to maximum rates of interest.

"5. Any person who evades or attempts to evade the provisions of this Act prescribing the maximum rate of interest by actually lending a smaller sum than that shown in the agreement or instrument executed by the debtor or in any other manner whatsoever, shall be punishable with fine not exceeding the sum of (a) one thousand rupees and (b) twice the amount which has been paid to him in consequence of such evasion or would have been paid to him if the attempted evasion had been successfully carried out."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It is an admitted fact that the high rate of interest forms a heavy burden and is one of the chief causes of agricultural indebtedness. It is also well known that low rates of interest prevailing in the cities have little effect on the usurious rates prevailing in the rural areas. The object of the Bill is to limit the rate of interest and thus relieve the masses from the exploitation and extortion of moneylenders. The simplest method of doing this is to amend the Usurious Loans Act, 1918. The measure has been adopted in certain Provinces but in a matter like this uniformity is greatly needed.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The legal profession has now been in existence in British India for about 150 years. It is a progressive institution. But it still consists of different grades with different status.

There has been a natural and growing desire and consciousness in the profession that all the different grades and distinctions should be abolished and that there should be only one grade of lawyers, practising in all the courts—from the High Court down to the lowest Civil, Criminal and Revenue Courts.

Another equally strong feeling which has grown up is that the Bar in India, like the Bar in Great Britain, should have substantial autonomy in the management of its own affairs and should free itself from the control of the courts.

This feeling found its expression first in the Resolution moved by Munshi Iswar Saran in the Legislative Assembly in 1921, recommending legislation with a view to create an Indian Bar so as to remove all distinctions enforced by statute or by practice between Barristers and Vakils.

The Government practically accepted the Resolution of Munshi Iswar Saran and invited the opinion of the High Courts and the Local Governments on two questions, viz., the creation of an India Bar Council and the desirability of removing all distinctions enforced by statute or by practice between Vakils and Barristers. The Local Governments unanimously recommended the removal of these distinctions; so also most of the High Courts. These opinions were collected in 1923. Thereupon the Indian Bar Committee was appointed by the Government of India in November, 1923, to report on the proposals made from time to time for constituting an India Bar with particular reference to the constitution, statutory recognition, functions and authority of Bar Council and its position vis-a-vis High Courts and the extent to which it might be desirable to remove the existing distinctions between Barristers and Vakils.

The Committee unanimously recommended the unification of all practitioners.

The Committee also recommended that some measure of self-government should be granted to the Bars attached to some of the High Courts.

To give effect to these recommendations by legislation a Bill was introduced which was ultimately passed as the Indian Bar Councils Act of 1926. A Bar Council was created by the Act to achieve this two-fold object, viz., the ultimate unification and eventual autonomy of the legal profession. But the reforms accomplished by this Act did not go far enough either in extent or in substance. The Act introduced some partial reforms regarding the enrolment and status of the lawyers entitled to practise in the High Court but left completely untouched the pleaders of subordinate courts. The result therefore is that there has not been any improvement in the status of the legal practitioners of the subordinate courts. They are still governed by the provisions of the Legal Practitioners Act of 1879. Their enrolment and conduct are still regulated by the High Court by rules made under the Legal Practitioners Act.

The object of this Bill is to bring about the desired unification and autonomy of the legal profession.

2. In section 3 of the Hindu Women's Rights to Property Act, 1937,— XVIII of 1937.

"Provided further that in the absence of a widow or a son or a son's son or a son's son's son of the intestate, the property of the deceased shall devolve on his daughters, subject to the limitations and in the order provided by the Hindu Law in this behalf:

Provided also that in the last mentioned case if there is a widow of a predeceased son existing with one or more maiden daughters, she shall inherit as a maiden daughter and if there is no maiden daughter but one or more married daughters having a son or sons the predeceased son's widow shall inherit as one of such daughters and if the daughter dies leaving a son or sons, the son or sons shall inherit their mother's share along with the son's widow or son's son's widow or son's son's son's widow."; and

L. A. BILL No. 21 OF 1939.

A Bill further to amend the Contempt of Courts Act, 1926, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Contempt of Courts Act, 1926, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:— XII of 1926.

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Contempt of Courts (Amendment) Act, 193 .

(2) It shall extend to the whole of British India.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, appoint.

Insertion of new section 1A in Act XII of 1926.

Contempt of Court.

2. After section 1 of the Contempt of Courts Act, 1926 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the following new section shall be inserted, namely:— XII of 1926.

"1A. Whoever, by words either spoken or written or by signs or by visible representation or otherwise, interferes with or obstructs the administration of justice in a court during the pendency of any case therein shall be deemed to commit contempt of court within the purview of sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 2."

Insertion of new section 2A in Act XII of 1926.

Procedure for trial of offences.

3. After section 2 of the said Act, the following new section shall be inserted, namely:—

"2A. A High Court or a Chief Court taking cognizance of any case of contempt under the provisions of this Act shall commit or hold to bail the accused person to take his trial before itself, and in trying the accused shall, mutatis mutandis, follow the procedure prescribed in Chapter XX of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for trial of Summons cases." V of 1898.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Contempt of Courts Act of 1926 has defined and limited the powers exercisable by High Courts and Chief Courts in punishing contempts of court. But it has not laid down any definition of the offence of contempt of court nor has it laid down the procedure and practice which should be followed in dealing with such offence. As the law stands now, one cannot speak with confidence as to what constitutes a contempt of court. There are different categories of contempt. Is it intended merely to prohibit interference with or obstruction of the administration of justice during the pendency of a case or should the law of contempt go further and penalise all such adverse criticism of judges and their decisions even after the disposal of cases as may bring a court into contempt and scandalise a judge? In the absence of a definition different courts will inevitably take different views. It should not be impossible for the legislature to formulate a workable definition of an offence which it seeks to punish. In any case, the Court will in each case have to find a definition for itself. It is not fair and reasonable to enact penal legislation without a cut and dried definition of what the offence is. While preventing interference with the course of administration of justice, this Bill seeks to give perfect freedom to the press and the public in the matter of comments upon judicial decisions. As regards procedure, the jurisdiction in contempt is now exceptionally summary and arbitrary. The powers of the Court are now extraordinary, uncontrolled and unfettered. But even a judge of the High Court is a human being and not a superman. The prosecutor himself should not be the judge of the accused. Besides there should be all the safeguards of a regular trial. The procedure should be laid down. This Bill seeks to fill up this two-fold lacuna in the existing law. The freedom of the press is not infrequently in jeopardy without the definition and procedure prescribed in the Act.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 18th February, 1939:—

L. A. BILL No. 22 OF 1939.

A Bill further to amend the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920, for the purpose of providing procedure for Provincial Insolvency Court to bring within its jurisdiction the right, title and interest of a member of a joint Hindu Mitakshara family other than the insolvent; It is hereby enacted as follows:— V of 1920.

Short title, extent, commencement and application.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Provincial Insolvency (Amendment) Act, 193 .

(2) It shall apply to the whole of British India, except the Scheduled Districts.

(3) It shall come into force immediately and shall apply to all pending proceedings.

Amendment of section 28, Act V of 1920.

2. Sub-sections (3) and (4) of section 28 of the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), shall be deleted. V of 1920.

Insertion of new section 34A in Act V of 1920. Description of insolvent's property divisible amongst creditors.

3. After section 34 of the said Act the following shall be inserted as section 34A, namely:—

"34A. (1) The property of the insolvent divisible amongst his creditors, and in this Act referred to as the property of the insolvent, shall not comprise the following particulars, namely:—

(a) property held by the insolvent on trust for any other person; and

(b) the tools (if any) of his trade and the necessary wearing apparel, bedding, cooking vessels and furniture of himself, his wife and children to a value, inclusive of tools and apparel and other necessaries as aforesaid, not exceeding three hundred rupees in the whole.

(2) Subject as aforesaid, the property of the insolvent shall comprise the following particulars, namely:—

(a) all such property as may belong to or be vested in the insolvent at the commencement of the insolvency or may be acquired by or devolve on him before his discharge;

(b) the capacity to exercise and to take proceedings for exercising all such powers in or over or in respect of property as might have been exercised by the insolvent for his own benefit at the commencement of his insolvency or before his discharge;

(c) the capacity to bind the right, title and interest of the member of a joint Hindu Mitakshara family other than the insolvent for such debts as are proved in a regular civil suit instituted by the Receiver representing the whole body of creditors to be untainted with immorality or illegality, and not otherwise; and

(d) all goods being at the commencement of the insolvency in the possession, order or disposition of the insolvent, in his trade or business by the consent and permission of the true owner under such circumstances that he is the reputed owner thereof:

Provided that things in action other than debt due or growing due to the insolvent in the course of his trade or business shall not be deemed goods within the meaning of clause (d):

Provided also that the true owner of any goods which have become divisible among the creditors of the insolvent under the provisions of clause (d) may prove for the value of such goods."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Civil Justice Committee Report (1924-25), Chapter XIV (Pages 225-45), in paragraph 26 itself admitted difficulty in laying down procedure to bind the right, title and interest of the members of a Hindu Joint Mitakshara family other than the insolvent because some decisions of High Courts appeared to make the whole property of the insolvent vest in the Receiver. At that time the Civil Justice Committee was not armed with varieties of discussions on so thorny a subject and wished to elicit opinion. But in course of a dozen years sufficient opinion has clustered round it in the shape of conflicting decisions among several High Courts and even the Privy Council in Sat Narain V. Behari Lal, 6 Lah. 1: A. I. R. 1925 P. C. 18 does not lay down any definite procedure. The result is that the wearied creditor is driven from Court to Court and is entrapped in a compromise with the insolvent on disadvantageous terms. The minor sons of the insolvent, who are always legally protected, often raise their heads to litigate at any stage during insolvency proceedings or after it, which involves a direct breach of the first duties of allegiance and respect from Hindu sons towards their insolvent fathers and is rarely instituted without collusion on the part of the latter. Consequently a claim by a son alleging the immorality or illegality of a debt incurred by his father as the ground for setting aside a transaction entered into by the latter must always be viewed with great suspicion, especially where the interests of a bona fide purchaser for value at an auction sale have to be considered. The members of the joint family other than the minors also put obstacles in the way. It is, therefore necessary to stop these vexatious claims based on inequitable pleas and interference by all members of the joint Hindu Mitakshara family and to safeguard both the creditors and the insolvent debtors that a definite procedure be laid down and the present uncertain condition must be ended.

The present Bill proposes to provide for a certain procedure to safeguard the interests of the creditors, purchasers and members of the joint Hindu Mitakshara family other than the insolvent. As the Receiver represents both the parties, confidence must be reposed in him and, to bind the right, title and interest of members of joint Hindu Mitakshara family other than the insolvent, he should be authorised to institute a regular civil suit against all those who may possibly lay adverse claim to such properties of the joint family so that there may be proper adjudication, and such of the assets as may be found liable for the just debts may be made available to the Receiver for the satisfaction of the proved debts of the insolvent.

Resolution on the Annual Irrigation Revenue Report for the year 1937-38.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

Department of Communications and Works.

Irrigation.

CALCUTTA, THE 15TH MARCH 1939.

RESOLUTION—No. 1-I.

Read—

The Annual Irrigation Revenue Report for the year 1937-38.

2. The total capital expenditure of the Irrigation Branch of the Department of Communications and Works during 1937-38 was Rs. 2,13,643, after the deduction of receipts and recoveries on capital account amounting to Rs. 94,876, as against Rs. 7,96,062 in the previous year. The major portion of this capital outlay was incurred on the completion of the reconditioning of the Anderson Weir and on special repairs to protective works in the Damodar Canal system which were necessitated by the high flood of August 1935.

The expenditure on revenue account amounted to Rs. 28,29,151 during the year under review as against Rs. 25,62,039 of the previous year. Of the total, the sum of Rs. 7,55,942 was spent on irrigation works proper, the principal items being the Midnapore, Bakreswar, Damodar and Eden Canals and the contour survey in Central and Western Bengal. A sum of Rs. 2,66,240 was spent mainly as a contribution to the cost of dredging the storm water outfall channel of the Corporation of Calcutta by the Government dredger "Ronaldshay" for which hire and other charges are realised from the Corporation. The rest of the expenditure on revenue account was on navigation, embankment and drainage works. The expenditure on navigation was mainly for the upkeep of the five suction dredgers, the maintenance of the Hijili Tidal Canal in Midnapore and of the existing steamer and boat routes from Calcutta to Eastern Bengal and Assam and the conservancy of some of the principal navigable rivers of the province such as the Ganges, the Dhalleswari and the Buriganga.

The total revenue receipts during the year were Rs. 11,97,334 as against Rs. 15,18,194 in the previous year. The fall of revenue to the extent of about Rs. 3,20,000 was due mainly to the widespread opposition to the collection of the improvement levy in the Damodar Canal area.

The rainfall during the year under review was normal and fairly well distributed throughout the province except in a part of Northern Bengal and in the areas served by the Damodar and Eden Canals, where it was slightly below normal but remarkably irregular in its distribution. It was scanty during the kharif season with the result that there was a keen demand for canal water at times specially during the months of June and October. The supply of water from the canals was adequate and ensured a good crop in the areas concerned.

The total area irrigated by the irrigation canals—the Midnapore, Damodar, Eden, Bakreswar, Salbund, Amjore and Kashianalla Canals—was 200,308 acres as compared with 201,696 acres in the previous year. The slight fall was due to a reduction in the number of leases as a result of fairly well distributed rainfall in the areas served by the Salbund, Bakreswar and Kashianalla Canals.

The Damodar Canal area was brought during the previous year under the operation of the Bengal Development Act, XVI of 1935, which provides for the development of lands in Bengal and authorises a levy in respect of increased profits resulting from improvement works constructed by Government. An improvement levy at the rate of Rs. 5-8 per acre was imposed in the commanded area of the canal, but protests were lodged against this rate as being excessive. A committee consisting of members of the Legislature and officials was appointed to enquire into the complaint and to consider what

Resolution on the Annual Irrigation Revenue Report for the year 1937-38.

Irrigation.

CALCUTTA, THE 15TH MARCH 1939.

RESOLUTION—No. 1-I.

Read—

The Annual Irrigation Revenue Report for the year 1937-38.

2. The total capital expenditure of the Irrigation Branch of the Department of Communications and Works during 1937-38 was Rs. 2,13,643, after the deduction of receipts and recoveries on capital account amounting to Rs. 94,876, as against Rs. 7,96,062 in the previous year. The major portion of this capital outlay was incurred on the completion of the reconditioning of the Anderson Weir and on special repairs to protective works in the Damodar Canal system which were necessitated by the high flood of August 1935.

The expenditure on revenue account amounted to Rs. 28,29,151 during the year under review as against Rs. 25,62,039 of the previous year. Of the total, the sum of Rs. 7,55,942 was spent on irrigation works proper, the principal items being the Midnapore, Bakreswar, Damodar and Eden Canals and the contour survey in Central and Western Bengal. A sum of Rs. 2,66,240 was spent mainly as a contribution to the cost of dredging the storm water outfall channel of the Corporation of Calcutta by the Government dredger "Ronaldshay" for which hire and other charges are realised from the Corporation. The rest of the expenditure on revenue account was on navigation, embankment and drainage works. The expenditure on navigation was mainly for the upkeep of the five suction dredgers, the maintenance of the Hijili Tidal Canal in Midnapore and of the existing steamer and boat routes from Calcutta to Eastern Bengal and Assam and the conservancy of some of the principal navigable rivers of the province such as the Ganges, the Dhalleswari and the Buriganga.

The total revenue receipts during the year were Rs. 11,97,334 as against Rs. 15,18,194 in the previous year. The fall of revenue to the extent of about Rs. 3,20,000 was due mainly to the widespread opposition to the collection of the improvement levy in the Damodar Canal area.

The rainfall during the year under review was normal and fairly well distributed throughout the province except in a part of Northern Bengal and in the areas served by the Damodar and Eden Canals, where it was slightly below normal but remarkably irregular in its distribution. It was scanty during the kharif season with the result that there was a keen demand for canal water at times specially during the months of June and October. The supply of water from the canals was adequate and ensured a good crop in the areas concerned.

The total area irrigated by the irrigation canals—the Midnapore, Damodar, Eden, Bakreswar, Salbund, Amjore and Kashianalla Canals—was 200,308 acres as compared with 201,696 acres in the previous year. The slight fall was due to a reduction in the number of leases as a result of fairly well distributed rainfall in the areas served by the Salbund, Bakreswar and Kashianalla Canals.

The Damodar Canal area was brought during the previous year under the operation of the Bengal Development Act, XVI of 1935, which provides for the development of lands in Bengal and authorises a levy in respect of increased profits resulting from improvement works constructed by Government. An improvement levy at the rate of Rs. 5-8 per acre was imposed in the commanded area of the canal, but protests were lodged against this rate as being excessive. A committee consisting of members of the Legislature and officials was appointed to enquire into the complaint and to consider what should in their opinion be a fair rate of levy. The committee while agreeing that the rate of Rs. 5-8 was justified on the increased outturn of crops, which was made possible by the canal, recommended that in consideration of the economic position of the cultivators, a rate of Rs. 2-9 per acre would be justified.

The contour survey of certain areas in Central and Western Bengal which was undertaken during the cold weather of 1936 was continued during the year under review. It is expected that on the data obtained by such surveys, it will be possible to frame projects and schemes which will be remunerative and suitable for execution under the Bengal Development Act.

A survey for the preparation of an estimate of the cost of a project for flushing and irrigating an area of 916 square miles in the districts of Burdwan, Hooghly and Howrah between the Damodar and Hooghly rivers was taken up during the year under review. A temporary circle, viz., the Development Circle with two divisions and four subdivisions, was opened for the work with effect from August 1937.

A survey along the proposed escape channel to frame a detailed estimate for lowering the flood level of the Gumti river in the district of Tippera was also carried out during the year.

The dredger "Ronaldshay" which has been referred to before was engaged during the year under review for 219 days in all in the work of dredging the Calcutta Outfall channel and earned a hire charge of Rs. 87,600.

With a view to bringing into force the Bengal Waterways Act by the creation of a Waterways Board in Bengal, a provision was made for half the statutory contribution provided in the Act in the budget of the last six months of the year.

Mr. T. A. Curry, Chief Engineer, proceeded during the year on leave preparatory to retirement. The Governor desires to acknowledge the valuable services which he rendered to the province during a career notable for great devotion to duty.
